

BIO D-One

There are DJ's and then there are real DJ's. D-One is no doubt as real as they get. He lives by one divine rule, 'spread the joy!' And this is what D-One tries to achieve in every aspect of his life, especially when spinning. The understanding of how to control a crowd is a talent conferred by D-One, which, when combined with his energy, charisma, awe-inspiring presence and of course insane mixing skills creates something absolutely special. The perfect party experience!

D-One a.k.a. David Rodulfo was born in the island of Trinidad which explains the sultry Caribbean vibe that so strongly seduces his sets. The story of D-One would lead into his dad's room and fire up the techniques of the old school. He learned his single spin and then his double spin action was essential to him. D-One's parents were from the Caribbean and he migrated to the United States. D-One's musical education began as he absorbed the sounds of reggae and R&B coming from the streets of New York City and all the way to his home town. D-One started during his early teens with a backyard party in his high school. He was playing the block parties of Brooklyn. While at university, D-One started playing in clubs. He has experienced what he refers to as 'the rush'. Just like a surfer, he has experienced the feeling from the heavens to earth. This adrenaline burst of excitement is what he lives for. He feels each and every time he steps onto a stage to share his message with the party clubbers.

Holland has been the place of residence for D-One since 2006. He has been able to resist the power of Dutch House music. It has found a way to seduce D-One and bring him back to sound with his island beats and urban background. D-One is a DJ who sets the party for all the other professional DJ's out there. A typical D-One set is a kaleidoscope of sexy pulsating, hands in the air, body sweating, spend all your money on drop music. Do the man the ladies simply adore him? It's impossible to place D-One in a box. He switches with an effortless ease from style to style making him one of the best all around DJs on the international club scene.

Having Caribbean roots and being from Trinidad, D-One has a passion to share the magic and beauty of Soca music with virgin ears. "It is who I am so I must share it. This is where I am from. This is our music!" It is his dream to see Soca gain mainstream status, seen on television and heard because it's just that good. In his own words, "Soca is a music that you can dance with energy and a strong feel-good. What is it about Soca that makes you feel good?" Answer: "It's the rhythm and the melody combined with soca music and you are aware of who they are for and you are aware of who they are for." D-One is responsible for the consistent success of his sets. He is an amazing DJ and someone you would definitely want to see at your party.

In 2006 D-One started JamMasters, an event management company founded to fulfill his desire to pursue other creative avenues. From the island of Trinidad and Tobago, Caribbean music are just a part of the array of JamMasters services. He is the only professional that understands that there is a business side to the fun and party making it a necessary if the goal is to successfully create a product. And if that's not enough, for the past seven years D-One has been and still is the number one DJ/selector for the international party scene and number one Soundsystem in Holland. He is a crazy, fun-loving crew blessed with the well deserved title of being 'Europe's Party King'.

On his long and impressive resumé, D-One has played the hottest clubs at countless cities all over the world. He appeared alongside famous recording artists, international DJ's and stood centre stage at major festivals worldwide. According to D-One some of his most memorable experiences includes Summerjam in Cologne (Germany) and gigs in Las Vegas, Tel Aviv (Israel), Helsinki (Finland), Vienna (Austria) and in the beautiful Bahamas. Every year he plays a role during international Carnival celebrations in Notting Hill (London), Berlin (Germany) and Panama (Panama). He is definitely a man on a mission. A mission to enjoy the doing what he loves and to spread the love of music to as many people as possible. So by chance you have been invited to a party and you are honored and privileged for throwing an awesome party with quality – prefer to be invited to a party by D-One, the obvious choice is D-One!
