

ListenWatchSchedulesProgramsGiveNewsArts & CultureLivingFamilyEvents

Arts	For Families	Music	Special Sections	Events Help
Book	Festivals	Museums	KPBS/Arts	Submit An Event
Charity	Films	Outdoors	KPBS Events	Submission FAQs
Food	Gardening	Theater	Valentine's Day	Contact KPBS Events
Exhibits	Lectures & Classes	Sports		Search Events

THIS EVENT IS IN THE PAST!

Disaster Preparedness Forum For Businesses

When Thursday, February 4, 2016 at 9 a.m.
Where Spring Valley Community Center, 8735 Jamacha Blvd., Spring Valley, CA 91977 Map | Website
Age limit All ages
Categories Lectures & Classes
Cost Free

Facebook Twitter Email

Above: Promotional photo of County Supervisor Dianne Jacob. Courtesy of Dianne Jacob.

Learn how to prepare your business and be more resilient for a wide array of disasters including earthquakes, floods, droughts, fires, active shooters, cyber crime and more. South County and East County Economic Development Councils will be hosting a Disaster Preparedness Forum for businesses.

Experts in the field of emergency services, utility services, law enforcement and officials from the County of San Diego will convey information on how to properly prepare for a disaster: both natural and man-made. County Supervisors Greg Cox and Dianne Jacob are scheduled to make brief introductory remarks.

This event is provided at no cost. Registration is recommended by Tuesday, Feb. 2, 2016 due to limited seating. For registration or for more information, email scedc@southcountyedc.com or call 619-424-5143.

Submit a correction for this event