Note: Table figures may not add due to rounding. Wages are for the San Diego region and are adjusted for inflation with 2010 as the base year. Data are estimated. Employment has been scaled to represent the CEDS Study Area based on estimates showing that 76% of all jobs in the region are located in the CEDS Study Area. One of San Diego region's traded industry clusters, Horticulture, tends to be concentrated in the northern part of the San Diego region. Because it is predominately outside the CEDS Study Area, it is excluded from this table.
