MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Dear Ladies,

Our members and officers made our 18th Annual October Luncheon, Silent Auction and Fashion Show an enjoyable and financial success. Our greeters were gracious in assigning our 195 guests to their seats. The ladies marveled at the large array of donated auction items including gift cards, beautiful baskets, designer purses, hats, jewelry and hotel package. Ronnie Rose, a talented and outstanding singer who has supported the Salvation Army many times, performed with his talented accompanist. His performance began as we ended our delicious lunch selection while some of our members sang and danced along. The Dillard's Fashion Show Mall provided the beautiful clothes that our lovely members selected and modeled including our Vice President and professional commentator. They were fabulous. A wonderful day had by all. This is a very detailed description for all of the ladies who were unable to attend. Sorry.

I would like to give a special thank you to last month's guest speaker Mary Vail, Author of "What's Your Philanthropic Footprint." In addition to her inspiring speech, she generously donated her book and five Designer purses for our Silent Auction. Her book is excellent in encouraging us to realize the gift of giving and volunteering. Our November meeting scheduled speaker is Captain Lisa Smith of Family Services. The special lunch will be a Hawaiian Luau prepared by Lt Larry Groenleer whose reputation precedes him as an excellent chef. There will be a $7.00 charge for this treat. Hawaiian attire is optional. The Mesquite Family Services Tour is scheduled Friday, November 21st. Hopefully, many of the ladies will go. Seeing the participation and help provided by the Supervisor and her assistant to the residents is truly amazing. It is a tour to remember. The anticipation is building for our first Crafty Ladies Christmas Boutique scheduled Saturday, November 15th in the Fellowship Hall. There will be crocheted and knitted items, handmade jewelry, stationery and other beautiful items the artisans have made available to purchase as gifts or personal use. Please make a special effort to support this very worthwhile fundraiser. When our ladies plan and develop events it is from the heart and may be time consuming, but it is for the right reasons. It follows The Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary Mission of spiritual redemption and social rehabilitation of those it serves. Alana Graham has opened her beautiful home again for our Christmas Tea which will be held Monday, December 1st. We now have over 150 members and as a courtesy the Committee Chair is requesting a two guest limit. Hopefully, they will be the same ladies who attended and supported our luncheon. We welcome the following four new members: Ardele Baron by Joy Wilson, Carmen Courtney by Dorothy Cowen, Glennie Gaines by Diane Ireland, and Beryl Wilson by Joy Moore.

Thank you ladies for all you do,

Deane Ireland

FROM YOUR VICE PRESIDENT

Ladies,

A dozen of roses is always appropriate for a special occasion. In your case, a garden of roses is more appropriate. For all of you were the best example of a special occasion, one by one twelve in a row. You kept our guests mesmerized modeling your fragrant bouquet of elegance, grace and poise. I was so honored as your Vice President to commentate this most memorable show of fashion.

Janet Bronson
