

Riviera dei Fiori (Liguria) & Langhe (Piemonte)

1st day

- BAROLO & ALBA A suggestive itinerary through the amazing Langhe: these hills and Alba, their capital, are the core of excellent Italian wine and food. This area of south Piedmont is secluded but always one of the preferred destination of all gourmands for its products of excellence as Barolo wine, the true "king" of the table and the truffle, the rare fruit of this land. The suggestive and poetic landscape is covered with vineyards and hamlets keeping intact their Medieval allure and castles overlooking pleasant hills and hollows. The tour will start with a bus transfer to Langa. After arrival in Barolo a guided walk through the hamlet will take place. We will arrive at a family run winery where we will enjoy a tasting of top quality wine. Further we will visit Alba, the famous capital of Langhe and famous for great Piedmont wines. You will join a guided walk through the historical center.

2nd day

- SANREMO, with its Middle Age centre (Pigna) and the famous and elegant Casino.
- Bussana Vecchia used to be a center for international artists since the Sixties, when artists and hippies from all over Northern Europe decided to settle in this abandoned village.
- BADALUCCO, ancient fortified fief with modern ceramics, sculptures and murales placed in the centre lanes (caruggi). Artists like Agenore Fabbri, Treccani, Salino, have realized a real permanent open-air art exhibition.

3rd day

- BALZI ROSSI (Ventimiglia), one of the most important archaeological area in Liguria. In these wonderful caves on the sea, the man lived 200.000 years ago. In the Prehistoric Museum are still preserved the tracks.
- VILLA HANBURY: a beautiful and unique garden with olive trees, vines, palms and cactus, on the cape of the Mortola. It is a Paradise actually, a botanical park unique in the world. Some plants come even from Asia and the Australian Forest.
- DOLCEACQUA and APRICALE, small characteristic ligurian village, right on the top of a hill, with a nice civic centre.
