

Recent News

King's psychology student pens mental health books for kids

Friday, August 26, 2016
King's student, Kristin Legault-Donkers is launching a series of children's books specifically for kids and parents struggling with mental health issues.

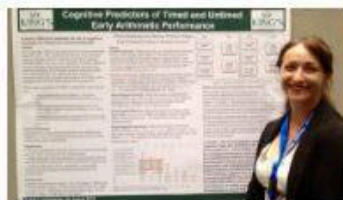

King's Dean of Students advice on how to start your career one step at a time

Monday, August 22, 2016
The Globe and Mail reports on how a steady progression of jobs helps to start a career.

King's grad presents at Cognitive Science Conference

Friday, August 19, 2016
Congratulations to recent King's graduate, Olivia Wassing, '16, on presenting her honors research thesis in Philadelphia.

Upcoming Events

Bridging Week

Wed, Aug 31, 2016 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

This program provides an opportunity for new international students to become comfortable with King's, Western and London prior to the excitement and hectic pace of the Orientation Program for all new students.

Math Boot Camp

Thu, Sep 1, 2016 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Review Review of Algebra, functions, trigonometry, and other topics. For students in math 0110A/B, Calculus 1000A, and Math 1225B.

Orientation Week

Mon, Sep 5, 2016 9:00 AM - 11:59 PM

Please join us in welcoming first year and new to King's students to campus.

Move-In Day

Mon, Sep 5, 2016 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM

King's welcomes new and current students to campus!

Welcome BBQ

Mon, Sep 5, 2016 11:00 AM - 2:00 PM