

Al Roever
Executive Director
REAP International

Al Roever is a preacher's kid who grew up in South Texas in the 50's and 60's. He graduated from Rice University in Houston, Texas 1961-1965. During those years his faith was severely tried and found wanting. Al became an atheist his senior year at Rice.

The study of Philosophy contributed a great deal to this failure. However, as a result, when he was saved at the age of 22 Roever committed his life to building a faith that would be unshakeable.

After graduating with a B. A. in Romance Languages, he taught French at Southwestern Assemblies of God College and took 23 hours of Bible, Theology and related courses. Then he followed up with 12 hours of Philosophy at the University of Texas, Arlington. Since then Roever has pastored three churches and worked eight years for his evangelist brother, Dave Roever, including five years as general manager of his ministry. He currently works with his brother Dave ministering in Viet Nam and with a Military School of Ministry.

Al Roever is driven by a passion to prevent young people from falling into the same trap he did. His teaching is designed to force people to think deeply about everything they believe and to develop an ability to communicate their faith clearly and powerfully.
