With a visual and atmospheric blend of elements evoking a movie set or scenes literally drawn out of a cult movie, combining trailers, décor, posters, memorabilia, comedians, workshops, eccentric makeup artists and stylists, psychedelic painters, performance artists and singers, theatre and burlesque performers, costumes and designers.

The Festival features works by aspiring local directors and filmmakers and offers a platform for expression and creativity. The Festival goes beyond entertainment. Its diverse movie program includes: drama, thrillers, comedies, documentaries, satire, experimental short movies, horror, social commentary, exploitation. Mascara & Popcorn isn't a contest; it offers a chance for artists and filmmakers to be exposed to a wider public as well as an opportunity for filmmakers to connect with colleagues, participants, partners and sponsors by being heard, seen and appreciated.
