

9A REPORT REQUIREMENT

Section 96.300 L.A.M.C. requires that the seller of Residential Property within the City of Los Angeles shall apply to the City for a Report of Residential Property Records and Pending Special Assessment Liens and deliver such report to the buyer prior to entering into an agreement of sale or exchange of the Residential Property or prior to close of escrow in connection therewith.

Welcome to the City of Los Angeles' Automated Residential Property Report System (Autores). At this site you can order a new "Report of Residential Property Records and Pending Special Assessment Liens" (also known as a Residential Property Report, RPR, or Form 9), check on the status of an RPR, and, if you have the RPR No. and County Assessor Identification Number (also known as AIN or Book-Page-Parcel No.), print a completed RPR. Instructions for using Autores and phone numbers for customer assistance are available by clicking on HELP to the left of this screen. Please review the instructions before placing a call as your questions may be answered in that text. If the instructions do not answer your questions, do not hesitate to call for assistance.

Los Angeles Municipal Code Section 96.300 requires that the seller of residential property provide an RPR to the buyer before entering into an agreement of sale or exchange of residential property or prior to the close of escrow in connection therewith. There is a fee of $70.20 for each report requested.

L.A.M.C. Section 151.00 requires all owners whose rental units are subject to the Rent Stabilization Ordinance to register their rental units with the Rent Stabilization Division. No landlord shall demand or accept rent until such registration has been obtained. Contact the Division at (213) 847-4790.

Section 96.300 L.A.M.C. requires that the seller of Residential Property within the City of Los Angeles shall apply to the City for a Report of Residential Property Records and Pending Special Assessment Liens and deliver such report to the buyer prior to entering into an agreement of sale or exchange of the Residential Property or prior to close of escrow in connection therewith. There is a fee of $70.20 for this service.

Residential Property is defined as:

1. Any real property improved with one or more buildings or structures which in whole or in part are used for or are legally permitted to be used for dwelling unit or guest room purposes.
2. Any vacant real property located in a zone wherein dwelling units or guest rooms are legally permitted.

A report is not required in the following cases:

1. Property exempt from taxation under the Documentary Transfer Act of the State of California.
2. The first sale of a residential building located in a subdivision whose final map has been approved and recorded in accordance with the Subdivision Map Act not more than two years prior to the first sale (except for condominium conversions).

No new Report need be obtained by an owner for a period of six months after the issuance of a Report on a Residential Property. However, the seller must still deliver a copy of the previously issued Report to the buyer prior to the sale or exchange of the Residential Property or prior to closed of escrow.
