

LOCAL ASSEMBLY of SOMEWHEREVILLE EGALITARIANS

NOTICE

THAT IN AN EGALITARIAN SOMEWHEREVILLE IT WOULD BE THE LAW THAT

There Are No Taxes

- The government, i.e., the Local Assembly of Somewhereville Egalitarians*, has no need to tax anybody because it has no need for money.
- The Local Assembly needs no money to determine the purposes for which the community's resources shall be used, or to call for volunteers to work on this or that project, or to decide if a person is not in good standing, or to decide how to equitably ration scarce things, or to send delegates to meet with delegates from other localities to craft large-scale proposals.
- The Local Assembly needs no money to pay wages or salaries because people in good standing may take from the economy whatever they reasonably need or desire for free or receive scarce products equitably rationed according to need.
- An egalitarian society is not based on money, has no rich and no poor, and thus has no need to collect taxes.

* All who support equality (no rich and no poor) and mutual aid are egalitarians; they and only they are equal members of the Assembly.

 A resident is NOT in good standing if, in the judgment of the Assembly, he/she refuses to work or attend school or apprentice training reasonably, or possesses more property or takes more products or services from the economy than is reasonable.
