

Boy Scout Troop 524

Privacy Policy

Prepared. For Life.

This privacy policy explains how Troop 524's website collects, uses, and discloses the information of users of troop524.org.

Collecting your information Information is collected through the Troop 524 website. Please note that we may correlate and supplement this data with both aggregate and personally identifiable information gathered from other divisions or companies.

Information collected through our website When you enter the Troop 524 website we hold the right to collect personally identifiable information, including (but not limited to) your name, physical address, email address, phone numbers, and other information related to a licensing application. All of this information is mandatory for our review process; while you may be able to submit a request without providing required information, we will be unable to accept and review your request to you without it. We may also collect personally identifiable information through other forms, surveys, emails we receive from you, and your other interactions with our website. When you use our website we may collect a variety of technical data, which we store in both aggregate and, personally identifiable forms. This data includes (but is not limited to) your IP address (a unique number that identifies your access account on the Internet), domain, and web browser information. We may track the page you visited before coming to the Troop 524 website and the page you link to when you leave the website, which of our pages you access, and how long you spend on each page. We do not allow third parties to collect aggregate and other anonymous information about our visitors through the Troop 524 website. Nor do we sell trade or otherwise exchange personal information you provide with any third party. Finally, note that our website may contain links to other websites on the Internet. Please remember that when you click on one of these links, you are leaving the Troop 524 website and entering another. Again, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these other websites, and encourage you to read their privacy statements (which may differ from ours).

Using your information This section describes how we use and disclose the information we collect. We use aggregate information about your behavior and computer equipment to improve the performance of our website, and to evaluate your reaction to the content and design of our website. We may use personally identifiable information to customize the content and layout of our website's pages for you, to store account information should it exist, and to record your web site session information. We may also use personally identifiable and aggregate information for a variety of marketing and promotional purposes. We do not intentionally share your personally identifiable information, except as required by law or in cases where it is necessary to share this information to investigate any incident of misuse or abuse of our web site, server or other information systems. If you supply us with your telephone numbers, you will only receive telephone contact from us regarding information required to process your request. Please note that the date of your most recent contact request will supersede prior requests.

Prepared. For Life.

Security We have instituted security measures in our website to protect our members against misuse or abuse. The information we may collect will not be intentionally shared except as required by law or in cases where it is necessary to share this information to investigate incidents of misuse. Please keep in mind, however, that no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you transmit using our website, and you transmit such information at your own risk. Troop 524 further does not assume responsibility for use or disclosure of your information that are the result of unauthorized or illegal access to our systems or those of our website partners.

Contact information Inquiries and requests relating to the Troop 524 website policy should be sent by email to troop524mn@gmail.com.

Policy changes From time to time, we may use customer information for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed in our privacy notice. If we make such a change, we will post a notice on the Troop 524 web site (troop524.org). If you are concerned about how your information is used, please check our website periodically to review our current privacy policy.

Boy Scouts of America Privacy Policies The Troop 524 website Privacy Policy is in accordance with the Boy Scouts of America Privacy Policy.
