

The following five treatment facilities promoted their program information at a treatment seminar held in San Diego in February 2013. The information below is taken directly from their websites or marketing brochures. These are listed in alphabetical order.

Aurora Behavioral Health Care

11878 Avenue of Industry – San Diego, CA 92128

“Aurora Behavioral Health Care San Diego is part of a private mental health system, dedicated to the wellness of individuals, their families, and our community through prevention, intervention and treatment. Nestled in the quiet community of Carmel Mountain Ranch, ABHS San Diego is an LPS designated, JACHO accredited, 80 bed inpatient hospital for voluntary and involuntary (5150) mental health stabilization and chemical dependency detox and rehab. In addition to our inpatient services, we offer partial hospitalization and intensive outpatient programs for mental health and chemical dependency for children, adolescents, adults and older adults.” Local contact: Susan Writer, Community Outreach Liaison, swriter@aurorabehavioralhealth.com, 858-675-4228

Center for Discovery - Southern California

“JCAHO accredited and licensed by the states of California and Washington, Center for Discovery (CFD) and Oceanaire offers three distinct treatment programs for adolescent males and females between the ages of 10 – 19 who are struggling with eating disorders, dual diagnosis or mental health issues. Oceanaire treats women 18 and over who struggle with eating disorders and co-occurring issues such as self-injurious behaviors, trauma, mood disorders and addictive disorders. Center for Discovery and Oceanaire contracts with most major insurance providers and will provide complimentary benefits check upon inquiry. For more information, call 800-760-3934 or visit www.centerfordiscovery.com or www.oceanaire-ed.com. Discovery treatment programs are located California and Washington state.”

Changing Options Community Residential Treatment programs

500 Third Street – Ramona, CA 92065

“Changing Options is an adult comprehensive residential treatment program; we are designed as a continuum of care to meet the needs of our individual clients. At one end is an intensive residential program centered at our main facility. At the other end is our independent living. In between residents attend group and individual therapy, and learn much needed living skills, attend classes to further their knowledge in everything from cooking, gardening, computers, nutrition, health management and a wide variety of social and vocational skills. Please contact us at dscott@changingoptions.org or 760-789-7299, ext. 101.”

