February 12 - 19, 2017 (Sunday to Sunday)

(Note: trip returns on the Sunday of President's Day Weekend - perfect for the person who has that holiday off from work.)

$1,629.00*

(Great value trip with the US dollar currently strong against the Canadian dollar.)

Our adventure trip is back - this time to the Okanagan Valley in British Columbia, Canada to ski "Champagne Powder" at Silver Star and Big White Ski Resorts. These resorts, located east of Whistler/Blackcomb and west of Banff, are known for their abundance of snow, varied terrain, sunshine and average temperatures in the mid-20s.

Snow Ghosts

Silver Star: British Columbia's third largest ski area boasts 3,282 acres of skiable terrain with 131 runs spread across four mountain faces; the variety of terrain is second to none. Riders and free stylers take note; there are 16 acres of terrain park and snow cross for your enjoyment. The nordic skier and snowshoer will find 60 miles of track and 7 miles of trails, respectively, on which they can explore the area. They have it all!

We will be staying mid-mountain at the Chilcoot Lodge for three nights and three days of skiing in hotel style rooms; breakfast included each morning.

The trip includes:

- * Air - Philadelphia to Kelowna on Air Canada Airlines
- * RT Transfers - Between Kelowna and Resorts
- * Lift tickets - 3 days of skiing at each resort*
- * Lodging - 3 nights in slope side hotel rooms in Silver Star, (Sunday to Tuesday)
4 nights in slope side hotel rooms in Big White, (Wednesday to Saturday)
- * Breakfast - One welcome breakfast and two additional breakfasts at Silver Star, 4 breakfasts at Big White
- * Welcome reception at Big White
- * Complimentary guided tours
- * All taxes

Big White: Known for its fantastic snow which covers 118 marked runs over 2,765 acres of skiable terrain, this resort has something for everyone, including the chance to ski through their spectacular "Snowghosts"! Riders and XC skiers/snowshoers - you will find one of the North America's best progressive terrain parks and 16 miles of incredible trails; half of which are groomed daily, respectively. It does not get better than this!

Our lodging is at the Inn at Big White located in the heart of this mid-mountain village for four nights and three days of skiing. Breakfast included each morning.
