Types of Membership

Secondary Division

- The Secondary Division shall be composed of secondary students who are or have been enrolled in a Health Science or an organized health career awareness program or are interested in, planning to pursue, or pursuing a career in the health profession.
- The official definition for secondary members of HOSA for the purposes of Competitive Events is one who:
 - is enrolled in a state-approved Health Science program or is planning to pursue a career in the health profession;
 - has not received a high-school diploma (or its equivalent) prior to the state's annual conference; or
 - has been within the continuous, sequential educational system for two or more years prior to the current year's HOSA International Leadership Conference.

Postsecondary/Collegiate Division

- The Postsecondary/Collegiate Division shall be composed of students enrolled in Health Science programs at the postsecondary/collegiate level as specified in Article III, Section 4 in the HOSA Bylaws.
- The official definition for postsecondary members of HOSA for the purposes of Competitive Events is one who:
 - is enrolled in a state-approved post-secondary program or college level program;
 - has received a high-school diploma (or its equivalent) and/or has been out of the continuous, sequential educational system prior to the current Health Science enrollment for two or more years prior to the current year's HOSA International Leadership Conference.
- The official definition for collegiate member of HOSA for the purposes of Competitive Events is one who:
 - is seeking a baccalaureate degree.

Professional

- Advisor – The person(s) responsible for advising students on health science activities that relate to HOSA. They shall pay affiliation fees, but may not vote, hold office or compete for HOSA member awards.

Membership Affiliation General Information

- Professional – (Other than HOSA Chapter Advisor) – These shall be health professionals and other adult members of the community who wish to assist and support the HOSA program of activities. They shall pay affiliation fees, but may not vote, hold office or compete for HOSA member awards.

Alumni

- As specified in Article III, Section 5 in the HOSA Bylaws, the Alumni Division shall be composed of persons who have been enrolled in Health Science programs and were members of HOSA, or former members of a HOSA chapter who no longer meet the requirements of regular chapter membership. Alumni members shall pay no affiliation fees, and may not vote, make motions, hold office or compete in events.
