AUTUMN, SPRING,
& SUMMER TERMS

Picture personalized tutorials with Oxford's world-class scholars.

Imagine an associate membership at an Oxford college – including access to dining halls, libraries, and common rooms – with access to Oxford's clubs and societies.

Envision combining this with an advanced worldviews course unlike any other, and a fellowship to last a lifetime.

The Summit Oxford Study Centre can make this your reality.

Qualified students may receive up to 17 credit hours for the term.

Everyone enjoys a wealth of cultural experiences, living near the scenic city center, and taking regular excursions to historic sites.

“ I believe in Christianity
as I believe that the sun has risen, not only because I see it, but because by it I see everything else. ”

SUMMIT OXFORD STUDY CENTRE

The program combines a unique and rigorous study of worldviews with the acclaimed academic strengths of Oxford. Our community is comprised of undergraduates and graduates, both singles and couples. We cultivate scholarly skills and virtues that propel Christian students forward with conviction. This is study abroad with a purpose.

TUITION AND FEES

Housing, college membership, tutorials, library membership, cultural excursions, weekly worldview colloquia, and the worldview intensive are all included. Flights, ground transportation, food and other living expenses are additional. Current fees can be found at summitoxford.org. We accept applications with a rolling deadline.

WORLDVIEWS

A worldview intensive occurs before or after the Oxford term. It combines biblical theology, comparative religion, investigative case studies, and ethical inquiries with ventures into international relations, public policy, rhetoric, and missions. During the Oxford term we enjoy weekly worldview colloquia, group meals, and social events.

TUTORIALS

The Oxford tutorials provide one-on-one study with world-class scholars. Topics include history, philosophy, the sciences, theology, journalism, psychology, and more. Each tutorial may be tailored to students' needs. Here you can study at a greater depth topics you've only begun to study elsewhere.

CULTURE

Cultural excursions take you to museums, historical sites, and artistic events. During Michaelmas and Hilary terms students may participate in Oxford's myriad of clubs and societies, including rowing teams, dancing groups, debate societies, church events, and more. FROM OUR ALUMNI

The level of access to world leaders, leading academics, and others on the front lines of cultureshaping was outstanding. In my first week, I had dinner in a pub with the leader of one of Britain's political parties. In our last week, I personally spoke with a former U.S. Supreme Court Justice. If you are looking to engage the world of ideas and consequences, Summit Oxford is the place.

— David Eastman, Alaska

"Summit Oxford has changed me. I've had many classes on theology, Bible, interpretation, apologetics, and spiritual formation, the Summit Oxford worldview course is simply the best that I have ever taken! The vigorous and seamless integration of the Old and New Testaments merging into clear thinking about current world issues distinguishes Summit Oxford from others. The persistent, faithful, and clear thinking tuned my own mind regarding pressing cultural issues including Islam, sexuality, race relations, and my place in the church."

— Steele Skrenta, Pennsylvania

The worldview sessions engaged, informed, and inspired me. I love Christ more because of Summit Oxford.

— Nate Spanos, Florida

The opportunity to experience a foreign culture without excessive language barriers, the challenging academic environment, and the stimulating worldview training combine to make this program absolutely spectacular.

— Chris VanEgmond, Arizona

Summit Oxford gave me the opportunity to sharpen my thinking about things academic and spiritual, allowed me to row competitively for my college, gave me a circle of friends, provided a home away from home with the Bywater family, and proved to be a door for a new and exciting chapter in my life. I am working on my DPhil at Oxford and am an Associate Chaplain for the Oxford Pastorate.

— Emilie Noteboom, Belgium

I was enabled to exalt Jesus in the academy. My grasp of the gospel was more informed, and more deeply formed, at Summit Oxford than at any other time or place in my life. I was equipped to bring my best to the Greatest.

— Nikolaus Breiner, New Jersey

We saw our faith deepened, our rationality heightened, and our relationships strengthened. Summit's tutelage and Oxford's tutors — what a potent experience.

— Andrea Wilhelm, Alabama
