WALL-SMART JOINS CRESTRON INTEGRATED PARTNER PROGRAM

Wall-Smart develops adapters for Crestron in-wall touchpanels & keypads

NEW YORK, NY: Wall-Smart Ltd. is pleased to announce the signing of a partnership agreement with Crestron Electronics, Inc., the leading provider of in-wall intelligent home control touchpanels and keypads. Under terms of the agreement, Wall-Smart is developing bespoke wall-mount adapters for the Crestron family of in-wall keypads and controls used in homes, offices, schools, government facilities, hospitals, and more.

The Wall-Smart in-wall mounts mesh into any wall for unobtrusive smart home control, lighting and electronic product installations that preserve the room décor. These flush-mount adapters can simply be painted to truly appear to be part of the wall.

Come see how Wall-Smart can make any smart home/smart office more refined by visiting our Booth (7-W158) at the Integrated Systems Europe show in Amsterdam from January 29th-31st for an interactive demonstration, or simply click www.wall-smart.com to learn more.
