

SIGNAL RIDGE

B U B B L E S

THE VINEYARD STORY

In 1999, Roger Scommegna planted a vineyard on top of Cold Spring Mountain off Signal Ridge Road, 9 miles inland from the Pacific Ocean. Overlooking the picturesque Anderson Valley at an elevation of 2,642 feet, the Signal Ridge Vineyard is the highest altitude vineyard in all of Mendocino, Sonoma and Napa Counties. This challenging terroir produces high end singular fruit.

ABOUT ROGER SCOMMEGNA

Serial entrepreneur and connoisseur, Roger Scommegna owns, operates and enjoys numerous businesses throughout Anderson Valley in addition to Signal Ridge Vineyards, including The Boonville Hotel, Table 128 Restaurant, and Boonville Bite Hard Apple Cider. He resides at The Bucket Ranch just outside of Boonville, CA, where he produces Bucket Ranch Olive Oil and Piment d'Ville chili pepper powder.

In 2001, Roger joined forces with Joel Gott and Charles Bieler to create Three Thieves. This successful partnership is responsible for category leading brands including Bandit, The SHOW, Three Thieves and Newman's Own Wines.

WINEMAKING & TASTING NOTES

This is the inaugural release of SRV Brut Sparkling wine, made in the méthode traditionnelle. A pale lemon in color, its bubbles crown the rim of each glass like a bracelet of diamonds. It offers aromas of autumn harvest apples and bread dough rising on the hearth. Hints of apple pie and marzipan tarry alongside the crisp minerality that lingers on the palate. Delightful to sip on its own, or paired with a sunset. Cheers!
