

Petition to Bravo from the Community of Bravo Editors

We, the undersigned Bravo-approved editors and assistant editors, strenuously disapprove of the network's treatment of our colleagues on "Shahs of Sunset." All of us work or have worked on Bravo shows, and we find the network's conduct towards our peers to be outrageous. The right to organize, including the right to strike, is protected by law. It is illegal and simply wrong for any employer to retaliate against employees who exercise their right to negotiate collectively for better terms. We call upon Bravo to immediately reinstate the "Shahs" editorial crew and to enter into good faith negotiations with them.
