Candlelight Vigil

Saturday, December 5th, 5:30 pm.
Copley Square, Boston, MA

People will gather in Boston's Copley Square, to call for the release of hundreds of thousands of detainees. Join us, so we can all show the detainees' pain to the whole world and ask for the end of what is being done to these children.

When the Syrian regime detains people, it does not differentiate between children, women, men, or even elderly people. This is happening because of Syria's Emergency Law, which, "... gave the government a free hand to arrest people without charge."

“ Let’s all call for the release of Syrian babies and children who are detained with their parents by the Bashar-al Assad regime. ”

We aim for our work to aid efforts to hold accountable all those who violate the rights of detainees in Syria.
