Underwritten by
Goût et Voyage, Taste and Travel & SIMPLY FRESH by McCAFFREY'S

Williams spent months exploring the small villages and large towns of Provence—sizing up the markets, browsing the cobbled streets, and seeking out the best each town has to offer. She will share her favorite discoveries, including market towns and local specialties. Join us for an exciting presentation, book signing and raffle. You'll be transported to several of the best food, crafts and antiques markets in the South of France! Open to Alliance members, their guests and the community. Ticket price includes lecture, a copy of "Markets of Provence" and raffle entry.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: MARJORIE R. WILLIAMS is the coauthor of Markets of Paris. Her work has been featured in Afar, NPR's Travel with Rick Steves, The Huffington Post, France Today, and House Beautiful. She also blogs on travel, food, and markets around the world. Marjorie travels extensively and believes that exploring markets is one of the most rewarding ways of immersing oneself in the local culture. She lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.
