

The Assessment Tomorrow 2016 Edinburgh Conference
10th Scottish e-Assessment Conference
“Developing the Young Workforce – the Role of Technology”
Grosvenor Hilton Hotel, Edinburgh 28th January 2016

Programme

0830 Registration
onwards

0930 Welcome and opening address – Chair

0940 The Strategic Importance of “Developing the Young Workforce”
SQA Keynote Address - Dr Gill Stewart, Director of Qualifications Development, SQA
Derek Hawthorne, Skills Development Scotland
Prof Phil John, Scholar, Heriot Watt University

1100 Coffee

1115 Technology as a key element of the assessment process – its value beyond the qualification
Tim Burnett and Ian Brumfitt, BTL
Denis Saunders, Calibrand
Margaret Marshall, EPICT and Susan Gearing, e-com Scotland
David Crosbie and Terri McComiskey, CCEA

1245 Lunch

1345 Good Practice and Experience - Case Studies and Projects from Scottish Education
Celeste McLaughlin, Jisc Scotland
Douglas Morrison, City of Glasgow College
Wendy Reith, The Royal High School in Edinburgh

1500 Tea

1515 Traffic Signals - The future Landscape and Impact of Technology in Scotland
Jim Fanning, Education Scotland
Jeff Heywood, University of Edinburgh

1600 Closing Address – Chair

This programme may be subject to change