Emerson College Polls: Utah breaking for third-party candidate McMullin.
Trump loses ground in New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and Missouri.
Ayotte (R-NH) and Blunt (R-MO) are tied in Senate bids, while Toomey (R-PA) is holding on.

BOSTON, MA - Four new polls by Emerson College show Hillary Clinton increasing her favorability and her support in New Hampshire, Pennsylvania and Missouri while, in Utah, Evan McMullin leads Donald Trump by 4 points, 31% to 27%, with Clinton taking 24%.

Presidential Ballot

	Clinton	Trump	Johnson	Stein	McMullin	Undecided	MOE
NH	44%	36%	10%	6%	N/A	5%	3.2%
PA	45%	41%	4%	4%	N/A	6%	3.4%
MO	39%	47%	5%	2%	N/A	7%	3.9%
UT	24%	27%	5%	-	31%	12%	3.6%

Utah, which has voted for Republican presidential candidates in every cycle since 1964, is a cause of concern for the Trump campaign. It appears that the divisive GOP primary, which was won by conservative Senator Ted Cruz with 69%, has left voters looking for an alternative to the GOP nominee. For example, 51% of Cruz primary voters are backing McMullin while 29% are voting for Trump. Among Utah's Republican primary voters who supported the second-place finisher, Ohio Governor John Kasich, only 4% say they plan to vote for Trump in November. McMullin draws his strongest support from young people, ages 18-34. He is winning 36% of their vote while Trump and Clinton each get 22%. Trump leads McMullin 35% to 24% among those who are 55 and over.

It appears Clinton is pulling away from the GOP nominee in New Hampshire and is now up 8 points, 44% to 36%, compared to her 5-point lead of 42% to 37% in an early September Emerson poll. Clinton has also seen her favorable rating in the Granite State increase 5 points, from 38% to 43%, while Trump's has increased 2 points, from 34% to 36%.

In Pennsylvania, Clinton has widened her lead slightly, edging Trump 45% to 41%, compared to her 3-point advantage (46% to 43%) in September. In Missouri, Trump has lost ground to Clinton but is still up by 8 points, 47% to 39%. The gap between them shrank 5 points since September, when he had a commanding lead of 47% to 34%. The number of voters who view him unfavorably has increased in the same time frame, from 51% to 56%, while Clinton's unfavorable rating has dropped from 64% to 61%.

Favorable/Unfavorable Ratings

NH	Favorable	Unfavorable
Clinton	43%	54%
Trump	36%	61%

MO	Favorable	Unfavorable
Clinton	37%	61%
Trump	43%	56%

PA	Favorable	Unfavorable
Clinton	42%	56%
Trump	36%	61%

UT	Favorable	Unfavorable
Clinton	23%	74%
Trump	24%	72%

In U.S. Senate races, Republican incumbent Kelly Ayotte is tied with New Hampshire Governor Maggie Hassan at 45% apiece after leading Hassan 48% to 46% in September. Ayotte has struggled to distance herself from Trump. GOP Senator Roy Blunt of Missouri is now tied with Democrat Jason Kander at 44% after trailing Kander 42% to 40% in a prior Emerson poll. The Senate race in Pennsylvania has also tightened with the GOP's junior senator, Pat Toomey, holding a 46% to 43% lead over Katie McGinty after leading McGinty by 7 points (46% to 39%) in August.

CALLER ID

The Emerson College New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Missouri and Utah polls were conducted October 17-19, under the Supervision of Professor Spencer Kimball. All samples consisted of only likely general election voters, per the following: NH n=900, with a margin of error (MOE) of +/- 3.2 percentage points, PA n=800 with an MOE of +/- 3.4%, UT n=700 with an MOE +/- 3.6%, and MO n=600 with an MOE of +/- 3.9%. Data was weighted by 2012 election results, age, gender, race and party affiliation. It is important to remember that subsets based on gender, age and party breakdowns carry with them higher margins of error, as the sample size is reduced. Data was collected using an Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system of landlines only. The full methodology and results can be found at www.theecps.com.
