

2016 INAUGURAL PBL IN ASIA SYMPOSIUM

COLLABORATIVE VISIONS

June 18-19, 2016
at University of Fukui

This symposium offers practitioners on every level rich opportunities to engage and learn from colleagues collaboratively. The mutual sharing of like- and unlike-minded educators and administrators will propel the PBL project further into the future.

Why Attend?

- Help ensure your teaching and training remains fresh and invigorated.
- Help find out more about STEM PBL pedagogical practices that work.
- Hear from academic and industry experts in STEM PBL.
- Discuss how PBL can be applied to different types of educational settings.
- Network with colleagues committed to excellence in teaching and learning.
- Exchange experiences and ideas to nurture intrinsically motivated learners.
