Ohio's Cover Crop Guru

David Brandt,
Farmer, Carroll, OH

Dave has brought an entire new meaning to cover crops in production agriculture. Currently David is working with The Ohio State University Research department on lowering cost of cover crops while making them more efficient. Dave has been planting cover crops since 1978. Come and talk with Dave and share your cover crop experiences!

Edge of Field Results

Dr. Libby Dayton

OSU Extension researcher

Dr. Dayton has an active research program, one aspect of which is focused on the Ohio Phosphorus Risk Index using field-scale and edge-of-field monitoring data. Come and find out what those studies are showing us. What are the best practices? Cover crops? No-till? Water control management?

Farmers Legal Responsibilities

Larry Antosh

Ohio Farm Bureau

Want to know what the new rules are for Senate Bill 1 and Senate Bill 150? When can you spread? What does a nutrient management plan get you? Larry will walk you through new management rules farmers must follow.
