

The Great Fundamental Coverup Apostasy

All that is necessary for apostasy to triumph in our churches is for preachers to refuse to face the facts.

First Baptist of Hammond, which has called itself a “great church” and has been called a “great church” by many preachers, has brought a great reproach upon the name of Christ; however, leading men in our movement have covered it up for about forty years and continue to do so.

Television networks, magazines, newspapers, and late night television shows have made Christianity a laughingstock before the world. They have mocked Christ, the Bible, and Christianity because of the sins of First Baptist of Hammond.

Jack Hyles own family has spoken out about his many years of immorality when he was the pastor at Hammond. Jack Schaap, Hyles son-in-law, now in prison, for his disgusting seduction of a minor, also promoted teaching that was outright blasphemy.

A report in the Chicago Magazine on “Let Us Prey: Big Trouble at First Baptist Church,” reported concerning ten cases of sexual crimes and fornications committed by pastors associated with the church. And then, there is Dave Hyles. It was common knowledge at First Baptist that he was a serial fornicator when he was there working in the church with his dad. There were deacons who committed immorality, there were dozens of graduates from their college who were fornicating preachers. You can see mug shots of some of these men in the January 2013 edition of the Chicago Magazine in the report “Let Us Prey.” When these fornicators were caught Jack Hyles repeatedly helped to move some of them to other churches where they often repeated their sin of seducing women.

Interesting is it not that fundamental preachers preach against those in the evangelical movement if they happen to have a little hair touching their ears or their collar and yet very influential men in our fundamental movement still write glowing reports about First Baptist in Hammond.

All of the praises of this church by influential independent Baptist preachers is a testimony of the apostasy we face today in our so-called fundamental movement.

Every preacher who knows about this coverup and gives them a glowing report is a partaker of their sins. Second John 1:11 plainly tells us that if someone is going against the Word of God and we bid him “God speed” we are a “partaker of his evil deeds.”

Men with understanding concerning what we “ought to do” are men who will expose our Laodicean so-called fundamental movement for what it is and for what it isn’t.

The Greater Sin

As sick as the immorality is, that has been covered up at Hammond, the greater sin is the destroying of the plan of Salvation. Hyles was the first influential preacher to promote the “damnable heresy” that repentance is not necessary for salvation. That is apostasy in its most blatant form.

Time To Wake Up!!!

All that is necessary for apostasy to triumph in our churches is for preachers to refuse to face the facts.

Silence always gives consent.
To remain silent is to promote apostasy and to lose our young people to the movement
