Executive Director

National Association of Federally Impacted Schools

The National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS), a Washington D.C based non-profit, non-partisan corporation of school districts throughout the United States organized primarily to educate Congress on the importance of the Impact Aid Program (Title VIII of Public Law 107-110), is seeking an outstanding leader with experience in the political arena and advocacy who has excellent communication abilities, strong management skills, and solid personal qualities to serve as Executive Director. The Executive Director is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the association and reports to the association's Board of Directors. Further information is available at www.nafisdc.org.

Candidates with the following qualifications are encouraged to apply:

- a) At minimum a BA degree
- b) Understanding of the U.S. Congress and the legislative process
- c) Experience in budget development and implementation
- d) Knowledge of the Impact Aid Program (Title VIII of P.L. 107-110) preferred
- e) Experience working with a non-profit association preferred
- f) A basic understanding of public school finance preferred

The final salary for the successful candidate will be negotiated and determined based on proven experience, qualifications and meeting Board criteria. The salary range is $140,000 to $180,000 (or commensurate with experience) annually with a comprehensive benefit package and a three-year minimum contract.

The application deadline is October 24, 2014 with a start date of July 1, 2015. To apply please electronically submit a letter of application, a resume including references, and (3) letters of recommendation via electronic mail to the Vice President of the NAFIS Board, Dr. Sandra Doebert, at sandy@lemont.k12.il.us
