Winter Club is pleased to offer Junior Club for skaters who are working on Basic 4 and higher levels. Junior Club provides advanced small-group instruction and helps transition skaters from Learn to Skate to Winter Club's free-skating sessions. Junior Club is designed for skaters considering taking private lessons and competing or testing in the U.S. Figure Skating system. Skaters are invited to participate in the Holiday Recital at 5pm on Sunday, Dec. 20. Skaters are invited to enter the Skate Your Heart Out Invitational competition on Sunday, Feb. 7, 2016, in the Youth Arena at the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Enrollment is limited. Email Patty at learntoskate@winterclubindy.org to reserve your place in class.

TUESDAY SCHEDULE:

- 5-5:15pm Off-ice class, wear supportive athletic shoes
- 5:15-5:30 Lace skates
- 5:30-6:00 On-ice small group class
- 6:00-6:15 Practice time (Private lessons available for additional fee.)
- 6:15-7:00 Optional practice time on Winter Club session for additional fee. ($12 for Winter Club members). Private lessons available for additional fee.

FEES: $15 per week with multi-week registration. $20 to drop in for one week. (There are no classes in Youth Arena Feb. 10-March 5.) Fees are pro-rated for skaters joining midsession. Skaters who miss a class can schedule a makeup during a Sunday or Thursday Learn to Skate.

MEMBERSHIP: All Junior Club participants must be current members of U.S. Figure Skating. The skater may register as a USFS Basic Skills Member ($15) or join Winter Club as an associate, introductory or full member. (Discuss membership options with a coach or Winter Club's membership director.)

COACHES: Junior Club instructors will rotate from week to week to give skaters an opportunity to work with several Winter Club coaches. Our coaches are members of the Professional Skaters Association and U.S. Figure Skating.

QUESTIONS: Talk to Patty Hagen, Director of Winter Club Learn to Skate, or email learntoskate@winterclubindy.com
