

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLIDY MUSIC SET TO BEGIN THE SEASON

The Glendora Woman's Club will present the Glendora High School; Silhouettes, under the direction of Dr. Brian Trevor, in a Christmas program "Music for the Holidays" at the Club's luncheon meeting on Tuesday, December 1.

The Club day will begin at 10:30a.m. with a social time, followed the business meeting at 11:00a.m. The catered luncheon and afternoon program will follow.

Planned to help usher in the Holiday Season, the program by the popular Silhouettes will present a selection of special holiday music, said program chair Helen Storland.

In keeping with the holiday season, the members' participation art display theme for the meeting will be Holiday Entertainment. For this display, members are encouraged to share their items from home that reflect the display theme, said committee member Mary Moore.

One of the Club's ongoing service projects is the donation of food items for Shepherd's Pantry by Club members at their meetings, said project chair Gloria Liddle. The Pantry, located in Glendora, serves families in need in 10 area cities.

For information about joining the Woman's Club, the Club's service projects and special events, call 626-963-733. For information about renting the ballroom or tearoom, call Ritz Catering 909-592-1113. The Clubhouse is located at 424 North Glendora Avenue.

Glendora

END
Page 2

Picture Caption: Members' continue to participate in art display each month. Each month is a different theme.

Submitted by
Joan Hallidy