

Hiskashrus at Home

ת"דב

Morning:

Sing Modeh Ani to a cheerful niggun
Discuss what to accomplish today and how to serve Hashem.

Suppertime:

Say brachos out loud, answer "Amen", with a smile
Discuss the day's Chitas and Hayom Yom
Share a story of the Rebbe
Share a Hashgacha Pratis story from that day
Learn a thought of Inyanei Moshiaich and Geula
After dinner, learn Chitas and Sefer Hamitzvos of the day.

In the Car:

Say the 12 pesukim or Tanya or Mishnayos Baal Peh together
Play niggunim
Talk about what you heard in a shiur or farbrengen.
Wave and say "Hello" to other Jewish people.

Childrens' Rooms:

Hang pictures of the Rebbeim
Have a pushka, Chitas, and Haggada for each child.
Nighttime Before Bed:
Say Shema and the 12 Pesukim
Say a Chassidishe story
Sing a niggun together
Discuss what can do better tomorrow.

Shabbos:

Younger kids daven at home, test them on pirush hamilos
Each child says a dvar torah, story, or niggun at the seudah
Tatty teaches something new to the kids
Make a shabbos party, rewarding what they did over Shabbos.

Matzai Shabbos:

Watch Living Torah and discuss what you heard
Share a story of a tzaddik.
Designate special niggunim for Melaveh Malkah.

Yam Tov:

Go on mitzvaim: lulav and esrog, pass out matzos, shaloch manos on Purim, etc.

Rosh Chodesh:

Make a special meal or add a dessert that has a lesson to it.
Learn a sicha with the girls that mentions women and Torah.

Yama D'Pagua:

Make a themed breakfast or supper for the whole family
Encourage everyone to dress in Shabbos clothes
Make a special mention of what happened that day
Write a pan to the Rebbe with the children, gaze at the Rebbe's picture
Watch a farbrengen of the Rebbe, or Rebbe video
Make a chassidishe farbrengen with the whole family.

Birthdays:

Encourage the children through the birthday minhagim, i.e. writing a pan, making a cheshbon nefesh, making a hachlata, giving extra tzedaka, making a farbrengen at home or with friends etc....
