DAY 5 – Today is a good day to rest up after yesterday’s festivities. Parisians love to stroll without any destination in mind. They also love to sit for hours at a café, drinking coffee and people watching. Enjoy!

DAY 6 – Today’s adventure: a 3-hour walking tour of the Marais District, home to Paris’ Jewish and gay community.

DAY 7 – la Jour de la Mort (Day of the Dead) our guided tour of the Paris Catacombs, burial place for 6 million! After lunch we will see one of the most hauntingly beautiful places in Paris, Cimetiere du Pere Lachaise, burial place of Oscar Wilde, Chopin, Marcel Marceau, Jim Morrison, Gertrude Stein, Alice B. Toklas and many others. Strolling Pere Lachaise is something you will never forget!

DAY 8 – Last day in Paris. Get lost! Discover museums or shop in a Grand Magasin. Climb the Arc de Triomphe, or secure a sidewalk café table and people watch for hours.

DAY 9 – Say “au revoir” or better, “à la prochaine” (until the next time) to Paris. We head back to Charles de Gaulle Airport and our afternoon flight home.
