

Bullying

Bullying is an ongoing problem in our schools and communities today. I generated this list to offer students, teachers, administrators, and parents a wide range of materials that deal with this issue. Included are fiction and non-fiction for elementary through high school age students. Professional resources are included for staff and parents with a range of formats including texts, DVDs, magazine articles, and websites.

Grades PK - 6

Bracken, B. (2012). The little bully. North Mankato, Minn.: Picture Window Books.

“When Fred makes fun of Billy at school, Billy has to learn how to deal with his friend's bullying.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Capstone Interactive Book

Cuyler, M. (2009). Bullies never win. New York: Simon & Schuster Books for Young Readers.

“When the class bully, Brenda Bailey, makes fun of Jessica's skinny legs and her boyish lunch box, Jessica doesn't know what to do. She doesn't want to be a tattletale, but she also wants the bullying to stop. Can Jessica find the courage to stand up for herself?” Provided by publisher

Hardcover

Dinardo, J. (2011). Attack of the bully bug. South Egremont, MA: Red Chair Press.

“The bugs in Bugville have had it with bullies! How will they solve the problem?” Provided by publisher

Paperback

Ferguson, A. (2013). Group bullying: Exclusion and ganging up. New York: PowerKids Press.

“Examines bullying by exclusion or ganging up, what it is, why people bully, how to get help, and how to rebuild self-esteem.”
Provided by Follett Titlewave

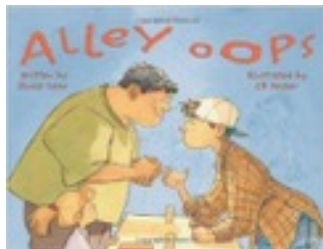

Follettbound Glued

Ferguson, A. (2015). What to do when your brother or sister is a bully. New York: PowerKids Press.

“Explains what to do when bullying happens between siblings.”
Provided by Follett Titlewave

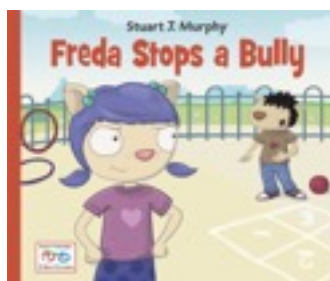

Follett eBook

Levy, J. (2005). Alley oops. Brooklyn, NY: Flashlight Press.

“J.J. Jax is a bully at school and likes to make fun of others kids and call them mean names; however, his father finds out and tells him a story about two dogs that live inside every person--a good one and a bad one.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Hardcover

Murphy, S. (2012). Freda stops a bully. Watertown, Mass.: Charlesbridge.

“Max makes fun of Freda's shoes, but Freda soon learns how to cope with his bullying.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Follett eBook

O'Neill, A. (2002). The Recess Queen. New York: Scholastic.

“Mean Jean is the biggest bully on the school playground until a new girl arrives and challenges Jean's status as the Recess Queen.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

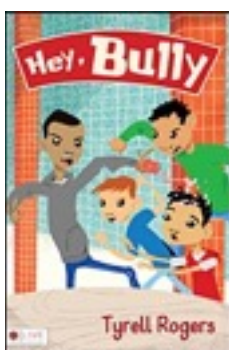

Hardcover

Polacco, P. (2012). Bully. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

“Lyla finds a great friend in Jamie on her first day of school, but when Lyla makes the cheerleading squad and a clique of popular girls invites her to join them, Jamie is left behind. Lyla knows bullying when she sees it, though, and when she sees the girls viciously teasing classmates on Facebook, including Jamie, she is smart enough to get out. But no one dumps these girls, and now they're out for revenge.” Provided by publisher

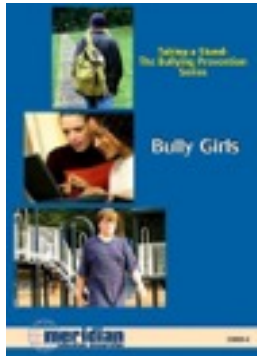

Hardcover

Rogers, T. (2013). Hey, bully. S.I.: Tate Pub & Enterprises LI.

“Juanez learns the transformative power of God's love after a boy he is bullying shares the love of Jesus with him instead of fighting back.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Follett Digital Audiobook

Grades 6-12

Bully girls [Motion picture on DVD]. (2006). Meridian Education.

“Explores the problem of bullying among girls, investigating how, when, and why it occurs, and offering advice on how to recognize when help is needed.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

DVD

Banting, C. (2006). I only said "Yes" so that they'd like me. Little Rock, Ark.: Wighita Press.

“Melody has always felt isolated at school, thanks to the kids that bully her every day, until a suicide attempt sends her to a teen home where she learns how to love herself and what true beauty really is.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

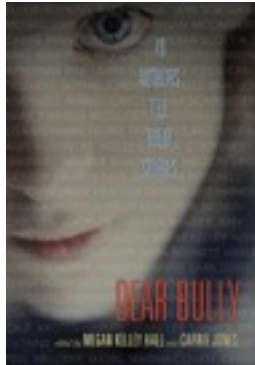

Paperback

Guillain, C. (2011). Coping with bullying. Chicago, Ill.: Heinemann Library.

“Offers an overview of the different types of bullying that students might face, including verbal or physical bullying, cell phone bullying, and cyber bullying, and provides ten tips for dealing with a bully.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Capstone Interactive Book

Hall, M. (2011). Dear bully: 70 authors tell their stories. New York, NY: HarperTeen.

“A collection of stories in which seventy authors share their experiences with and feelings about bullying, including selections from Lauren Kate, R. L. Stine, Melissa Walker, Laura Kasischke, Amy Reed, Kurtis Scaletta, Carolyn Mackler, and others.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

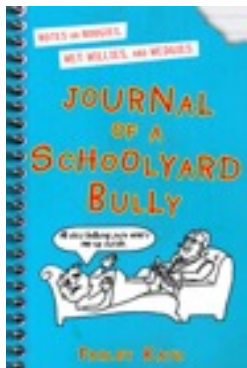

Hardcover

Harmon, M. (2009). Brutal. New York, N.Y.: Alfred A. Knopf.

“Forced to leave Los Angeles for life in a quiet California wine town with a father she has never known, rebellious sixteen-year-old Poe Holly rails against a high school system that allows elite students special privileges and tolerates bullying of those who are different.” Provided by publisher

Follett eBook

Katz, F. (2011). Journal of a schoolyard bully: Notes on noogies, wet willies, and wedgies. New York, NY: St. Martin's Griffin.

“Seventh-grade bully Niko Kaylor, forced to keep a journal as a form of therapy, instead creates a how-to guide while plotting a lesson in bullying for the entire middle school, including the teachers and Vice Principal Jones.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Follett eBook

Kerz, A. (2011). Better than weird. Victoria, BC: Orca Book.

“When Aaron's long-absent father returns, Aaron must cope with bullying at school, his grandmother's illness and his father's pregnant new wife.” Provided by publisher

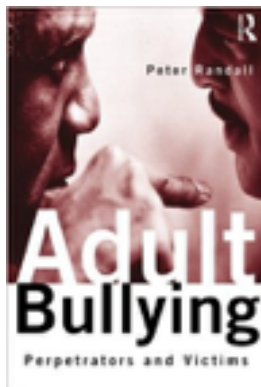

Follett eBook

King, A. (2011). Everybody sees the ants: A novel. New York: Little, Brown.

“Overburdened by his parents' bickering and a bully's attacks, fifteen-year-old Lucky Linderman begins dreaming of being with his grandfather, who went missing during the Vietnam War, but during a visit to Arizona, his aunt and uncle and their beautiful neighbor, Ginny, help him find a new perspective.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

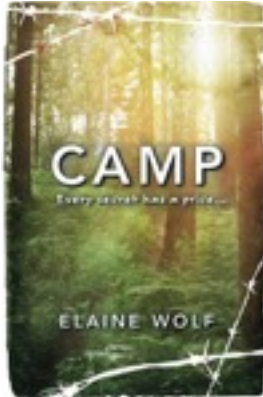

Paperback

Randall, P. (1997). Adult bullying: Perpetrators and victims. London: Routledge.

“Describes the transition from child bully to adult bully and examines factors in workplace harassment, the creation of the bullying personality and the victim personality, and prevention of bullying in the community.” Provided by publisher

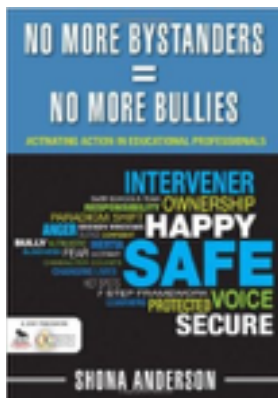

Paperback

Wolf, E. (2012). Camp. New York: Sky Pony Press.
 “In 1963 at a Maine summer camp, fourteen-year-old Amy Becker is forced to face the camp bully, Rory, family secrets revealed by her cousin Robin, and worry about having to leave her mentally challenged brother with their cold, harsh mother.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Hardcover

Educational Professionals

Anderson, S. (2011). No more bystanders = No more bullies: Activating action in educational professionals. Thousand Oaks, Calif.: Corwin Press.

“Offers tools and strategies designed to help educators prevent and respond to bullying, featuring ten questions to help readers reflect on areas of school culture that need improvement, practical ideas for each stage in the decision-making cycle, and activities that encourage staff members to observe, collaborate, act, and evaluate.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

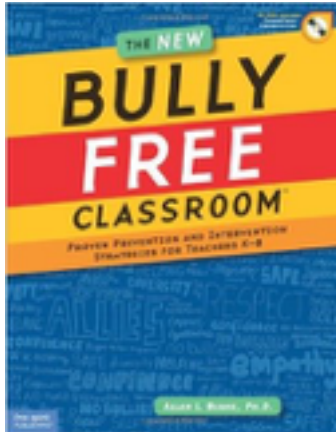

Paperback

Barton, E. (2006). Bully prevention: Tips and strategies for school leaders and classroom teachers (2nd ed.). Thousand Oaks, Calif.: Corwin Press.

“Provides practical strategies for teachers and administrators on handling bullies, showing how to establish an anti-bullying program and teach students the proper way to handle confrontation.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Hardcover

Beane, A. (2011). The new bully free classroom: Proven prevention and intervention strategies for teachers K-8. Minneapolis, MN: Free Spirit Pub. “Explores what bullying is, looks at the role of bystanders, presents examples and scenarios, and addresses the issues of cyberbullying--including specific technologies, such as Facebook and texting. Offers a ready-to-use PowerPoint presentation for preservice and in-service training. Includes a CD-ROM with reproducible forms, surveys, handouts, and letters to parents and caregivers.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

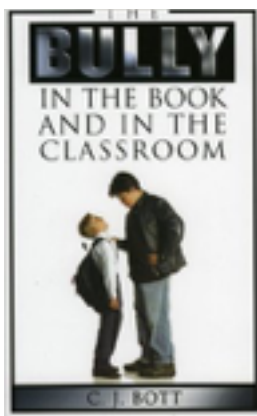

Follett eBook

Bott, C. (2009). More bullies in more books. Lanham, Md.: Scarecrow Press.

“Contains summaries of over 350 books for children and young adults about bullying, with discussion questions and quotes for reader response, and includes a general overview of bullying and what teachers can do to stop such behaviors.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Paperback

Bott, C. (2004). The bully in the book and in the classroom. Lanham, Md.: Scarecrow Press.

“Presents summaries of books for children and young adults about bullying, featuring eight to ten titles in each of four age groups, ranging from kindergarten through high school, and includes a general overview of bullying and what teachers can do to stop such behaviors.” Provided by Titlewave

Paperback

Dillon, J. (2012). No place for bullying: Leadership for schools that care for every student. Thousand Oaks, Calif.: Corwin.

“A guide to bullying prevention in schools, covering how to address the problem, lead others to reduce and prevent bullying, follow through, and more.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Follett eBook

Hirsch, L. (2012). Bully: An action plan for teachers and parents to combat the bullying crisis : An empowering companion to the acclaimed film. New York: Weinstein Books.

“A companion to the film "Bully" following the stories of the families featured in the movie and personal anecdotes from antibullying activists, experts, authors, and educators.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

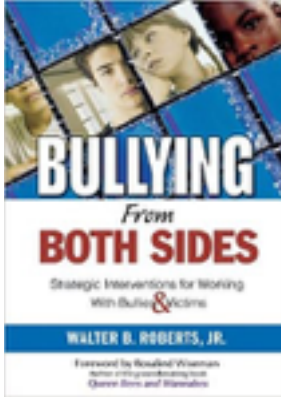

Playaway All-in-One Audiobook

McNeil, L. (2010, February 22). Suicide in South Hadley Bullied to Death? People Magazine.

Explains how a girl was bullied so badly at school it killed her.

Magazine article

Roberts, W. (2006). Bullying from both sides: Strategic interventions for working with bullies & victims.

Thousand Oaks, Calif.: Corwin Press.

“A comprehensive guide to helping educators understand and recognize those students who are being victimized by bullies, and provides intervention strategies that cover prevention and safeguards against violence, contacting parents, and long and short-term counseling support.” Provided by Follett Titlewave

Follett eBook

Home | StopBullying.gov. (n.d.). Retrieved February 10, 2015, from <http://www.stopbullying.gov>

Gives advice on how to prevent and respond to bullying as well as where to go for help.

Website