Day-by-Day Itinerary (Further detailed itinerary, recommendations and maps will be provided upon booking)

Day 1: Arrival in Rome and transfer via luxury vehicle from airport to hotel. Check into your hotel, and after a quick nap hit the streets of Rome! Use the walking tour maps provided by My Italy VIP to indulge in a Gelato tour or Monument itinerary, and visit the Coliseum and Roman Forum. Spend the evening enjoying an alfresco dinner of Roman specialties.

Day 2: After breakfast, meet the Chef at one of Rome's famous markets to choose ingredients for your cooking class. Head back to his house for a cooking lesson and lunch. Spend the rest of your day at leisure in Rome.

Day 3: Visit the Mecca for Italian Food: Eataly, or spend the day getting lost in the streets and narrow passageways of Rome. Enjoy a nice pasta lunch at one of Rome's street side cafes but don't over-eat, tonight you will go to the famous Roscioli for a local food and wine tasting dinner!

Day 4: Say goodbye to Rome, and get on the train for Parma. Upon arrival, check in to your hotel and enjoy a lunch of Salumi, and Tortelli or other Parma specialties. You are in the heart of Europe's food valley. Spend the afternoon visiting some of the elegant city's sights such as its pink marble Duomo and Barilla chef's Academy.

Day 5: After an early breakfast, meet your guide for a visit to a real Caseificio where the world famous Parmigiano Reggiano is produced. Next visit a Prosciutto producer, followed by a lunch of regional specialties.

Day 6: Wake up and take the train to the Piedmont region. Check into your Agriturismo and enjoy your day visiting the grounds. Visit the town of Alba, famous for its prized Truffles.

Day 7: Weather permitting, meet your truffle hunting guide and his four legged companion for an authentic truffle hunt!. Truffle based lunch following.

Day 8: Early morning transfer to Torino airport flight out of Italy.
