☐ Personalized Shields ☐ Great Helm Helmet ☐ Small-but-Mighty Catapult

Party Tips:

1. Medieval Dude parties work best in a grassy area, preferably 40' x 30' in size. A park is a perfect setting, but a large backyard works well, too.
2. Parental supervision is appreciated to help ensure a safe play environment for all attendees.
3. An electrical outlet is helpful, but not required.
4. For ideas on décor, theme development, food, invitations, etc., please visit The Medieval Dude Pinterest page at <http://pinterest.com/themedievaldude/>

Please note the following terms and conditions:

- Age Requirement: To ensure safety for all attendees, the birthday child must be celebrating his/her sixth birthday at the youngest, and most if not all attendees should be of similar age. Children younger than five are not allowed to participate in the tournament of games.
- The Medieval Dude birthday party experience lasts approximately 60 minutes depending on the size of your party and the ages of the children. During this time, the Medieval Dude will conduct four main activities: 1) Medieval Armor education and hands-on demonstration; 2) Tournament of Champions (medieval games) involving children as participants; 3) Knighting of the Birthday Child and 4) Medieval-themed craft.
- The presenter requires 15 minutes before and after the presentation for equipment set up and tear down.
- A $100 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve party date and time. The balance due is payable before the presentation begins at your party.
- To maintain the integrity of the authentic, steel armor and equipment, The Medieval Dude reserves the right to reschedule a birthday tournament event in the case of inclement weather or other acts of nature.
- Party host must sign a waiver of liability before the party is conducted.
- Video and pictures are permissible for nostalgia's sake, but should not be used for profit or personal gain.

I understand the rules and guidelines listed above.
