

SPEAKING:

The Speaking section of the English Proficiency Test includes 3 parts:

- In the 1st part, students are asked warm-up questions followed by general questions on various topics.
- In the 2nd part, they are given task sheets on which there are certain topics (like sports, music, health, environment, education etc.) they are asked to talk about.
- In the 3rd part, answering follow-up questions, students expand on the topics they have talked about in the 2nd part.

WRITING:

Students are asked to write a well-organized essay (an opinion essay, an advantages/disadvantages essay) of min.200-250 words.
