

Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc. 2014 MARSH MEDALLION HUNT

QUEST AT THE FEST!

This is what the actual medallion looks like!

Join us in the 3rd Annual Marsh Medallion Hunt during the 42nd Annual Warrens Cranberry Festival
September 26-28, 2014
Win a cash prize!!!

The Marsh Medallion will be hidden within the Warrens Cranberry Festival grounds, on public property and clues will be given starting on the Monday prior to the festival (September 22, 2014).

Listen for clues on WCOW radio station or check our website www.cranfest.com and our Facebook page www.facebook.com/cranfest.

A new clue will be given each day.

The person who finds the Marsh Medallion can receive his/her prize by bringing the medallion to the Warrens Cranberry Festival office at 402 Pine Street, in Warrens.

The medallion is a 2^{3/4"} diameter gold and red coin with a red ribbon, that reads "If found please return to the Warrens Cranberry Festival office at 402 Pine St. to claim prize."

- The medallion is not hidden in a dangerous place! You will not need to climb trees, use a ladder, dig in the ground or in any way put yourself in danger to find it!
- The medallion may be hidden in the branches of a tree or other elevated location but no climbing is necessary to reach it.
- The medallion may be partially covered but no digging is required!
- Please be respectful of property when searching for the medallion. The Festival reserves the right to terminate the hunt at any time if public or private property is destroyed.
- If the medallion is not found by 5pm on Sunday, September 28, 2014, the Festival has the right to terminate the hunt.
- By accepting the prize, the winner grants permission for the Festival to use his/her name, voice, photograph and/or other likeness for advertising and/or publicity without compensation.
- Festival members and their immediate families are not eligible to win.
