

NSSFF, Connecting Nigerians, Promoting Awareness, Developing our Communities.

“Nigerians in Multicultural Britain (Education)”

The Council Chamber, Civic Centre, Stockwell Close, Bromley, London, BR1 3UH
Sat 27th June 2015||9am to 4:30pm

Programme

REGISTRATION

- Welcome
Mr. Dele Dada and Mrs. Titi Sodade, NSSFF Executives
Opening by Councillor Alan Collins, Deputy Mayor of the London Borough of Bromley
- Alumni associations showcase the work they do
Alumni Reps
- Key note address: Making the car run faster
Mr. Seyi Obakin, Chief Executive of Centrepont & Chair of the Tobi Adeyemi Foundation
- Being a RARE candidate
Ms. Tanisha Onyenaoha, Executive, Rare recruitment agency

COFFEE BREAK

- Are you an Education snob?
Ms Jane Rowlands, Principal, University Academy of Engineering South Bank
- Speak and be heard-Giving the youth a voice
TGC, The Genesis Club, Croydon

LUNCH

- Introduction to the afternoon session
Mr. Dele Dada and Mrs. Titi Sodade
- Questions to the Panel of Experts
Panellists
- So what is Metacognition? Followed by Table discussion
Mr. Oke Eleyae, Chartered London Teacher and Fellow of the College of Teachers

REFRESHMENTS

- Feedback from round table discussion
Dr. Nike Arowobusoye and Oke Eleyae
- NSSFF News: Sports Day 2015 -Carnival weekend -Saturday, 29 August 2015
Mr. Wole Sanwo and Mr. Olu Alaka
- Chair's thanks and closing remarks
NSSFF Chair- Mr. Bimbo Babarinde

NETWORKING

NSSFF Lecture 2015 is proudly supported by BNET (The Britain-Nigeria Educational Trust) & LB Bromley

Winner Nigerian Event Awards (NEA) UK: Outstanding Event for 2014

©2015 NSSFF -The second of a series of awareness raising seminars by NSSFF