DON'S 101 THINGS TO SEE & DO IN BALI

(THIS VERSION UPDATED - JUNE 2011)

So you're off to Bali..... and without doubt I know you will have a great time in the "Isle Of Smiles". There are many things to see and do in Bali for the active (and less active) traveler. Bali's rugged and majestic landscape offers up an ideal setting for the active adventurer and there is an abundance of adventure tours such as rafting, hiking and cycling catering for all age groups.

In contrast, Bali's "cultural centre" of Ubud has many diverse art, craft and cultural activities that travelers can join in to cultivate more of an understanding about the history, culture and daily life of the friendly Balinese people.

Here is my list of 101 Things to See and Do in Bali divided into categories: WILDLIFE - ZOOS & PARKS, WATERSPORTS, ACTION & ADVENTURE, GOLFING IN BALI, CYCLING - HIKING & TREKKING, BALI'S BEACHES, MUSEUMS - ART & CULTURE, COOKING CLASSES, TEMPLES & NATURAL ATTRACTIONS.

But of course there's heaps more too that I'm sure you will find by yourself that are as equally enjoyable..... why not drop me a line and let me know of your experiences so we can add it to our list. I'd also appreciate any news advising of price changes so we can keep this list updated for other intrepid Bali travelers.

And for those "Bali Virgin's" about to embark on their first trip to Bali we also have a handy shopping guide "Don's Bali Virgin's Shopping Guide" with prices of many items you might want to buy but aren't quite sure of local prices.

You will find a copy of Don's Bali Virgin's Shopping Guide - HERE.

There are many video links included below to give you a better understanding about each attraction, see many more Bali related video's on the web at www.mybali.tv

Happy Travels

WILDLIFE - ZOOS - PARKS

BALI'S DOLPHINS - Swimming with them.....or Watch / Follow them by boat ?

There are two main Dolphin attractions in Bali. One is at Lovina Beach in northern Bali where you pay a guide who takes you out in a boat and you watch the dolphins in their natural environment (the ocean). The other is a new attraction just off the coast near Sanur in the south in a floating sea pen where you can interact (swim) with the dolphins.

Bali Dolphin Lodge - Sanur

There is now a special facility in Bali that allows you to interact and come into close contact with dolphins. In a huge floating sea pen just off the coast of Serangan near Sanur, (accessed by a short 5 min boat ride) you can touch, hug, feed and play with dolphins. Dolphins Bali provides a shallow area platform (approx 1.5 mtrs deep) for visitors to swim, pat and interact with the dolphins. There are as many as 8 dolphins to interact with and with a maximum of 5 persons in one session. As well as interacting with these beautiful creatures there is also the opportunity to only watch and is only half the price. Witness the spectacular and acrobatic dolphins with their stunning leaps, somersaults, jumps, side slaps and back flips. Watching the dolphins can be as equally rewarding as interacting with them and makes for a memorable experience and a great opportunities to take pictures or video of these beautiful sea creatures up close and personal.

Bali Dolphin Watching Tour - Lovina

On of the most memorable things to do in Bali is going on a Dolphin tour in Lovina. These dolphins gather together every morning around the reef. Don't be surprised if you see them suddenly swimming next to your boat. The tours can be arranged in the hotels and villages at Lovina. Tours start just before the sunrise.

Bali Elephant Park - Taro (near Ubud)

In the quiet central highlands of the Indonesian island of Bali, just 20 minutes from Ubud, is the small town of Taro, home to some pretty impressive residents, the Sumatran elephants. After deforestation in Sumatra, the elephants were left homeless and with a depleted food supply. Fortunately they were rescued and now live happily at the Elephant Safari Park. What's more, it's the only park in the world where you can sleep in luxurious surrounds near these rare indigenous animals. The park was founded by Australian Nigel Mason, who took nine neglected elephants from the village and travelled to Sumatra and rescued another 18. His operation is part of the World Zoo Association, so animal welfare is the priority. You can touch them, handfeed and interact with them. You can even help bath them. There are safari rides through Taro's jungles with riders perched in a teak chair on an elephant's back. After the trek, lunch is served at the Park Restaurant beside the elephant bathing lake. Then everyone heads to the Elephant Arena for one of three daily talent shows.

Sacred Monkey Forest - Ubud

Because monkeys can embody both positive and negative forces, the Balinese both loathe and revere monkeys. Monkeys that occupy sacred Balinese Hindu temple sites tend to be revered and protected by the Balinese. One reason for this is that monkeys, in the form of a Barong, are believed to be capable of guarding temple sites against evil spirits. Currently, there are approx 340 (Balinese long-tailed macaques that inhabit the Sacred Monkey Forest of Padangtegal.

ACTION - ADVENTURE

Bali Quad Adventure Tours - Ubud

The ATV 4 wheelers and the buggies are user friendly and easy to handle. Tours combine a great experience of driving your own off road vehicle (or enjoying the ride as a co pilot) with the opportunity to learn about the way the local people live. You will follow experienced guides by driving between beautiful rice fields, pass the rainforest and drive up the mountain. It doesn't matter if you have ever driven a quad bike or a buggy before as full training is given on a test track before the 2 hour tour commences. Furthermore no driving license is needed.

Bat Cave (Goa Lawah) Tour – near Candidasa

On Bali's east coast is the small but important temple of Goa Lawah. The temple itself is built just in front of a cave opening in the coastal cliffs. The cave is home to thousands of fruit bats, and according to legend, a giant dragon-like snake called Basuki which also makes the cave its home. The legends also say the cave extends all the way to Besakih temple, more than 30 kilometers (19 miles) away but apparently, fear of the giant snake has kept anyone from checking this legend out. Goa Lawah is Bali's most important temple for matters pertaining to the afterlife. On holy days, the beach in front of the temple is the site for funeral rites for those Hindu's that can afford it.

MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Bali is ideal for diving and snorkeling where you can see many species of marine life such as Manta Rays, Barracuda, and Sea Turtles. Best diving and snorkeling spots are located on the east coast of Bali around Amed due to the crystal clear waters in that area. Most dive spots are accessible either with dive operators or traditional local fishermen.

Diving With Absolute Scuba – Padang Bai

Absolute Scuba is located on the South-East coast of Bali in a small fishing village called Padang Bai, which has become the hub of Bali's diving recreation in recent years. Here, you are never more than one and a half hours, by land or sea, from some of the most diversely populated dive sites on the planet. The range of marine life is widely varied, and during the months of July to October, the mighty Mola Mola (Giant Ocean Sunfish) can be found in the island's deep water channels, coming to certain dive sites for cleaning. All year around we have Manta, sharks, and some of the best muck diving sites in the world revealing an array of macro delights.

Bali Agung Theatre (Bali Safari & Marine Park) - Gianyar

Bali Agung Theatre is a mega-stage theatrical complex with a 1200 seating capacity. It is fully equipped with advanced multi-media technology and state-of-art sound and lighting systems. The entrance features the island's tallest 8-metre high Ganesha statue, the God of science and knowledge. Bali Theatre is not just a theatre – it is one of the biggest Performing Art Stages in Bali, the first with a world class show where 150 acclaimed dancers as well as musicians and puppet masters perform together with an array of exotic animals – all in one indoor mega- stage, Bali Theatre in the Park. Bali Theatre is located in the heart of Bali Safari Marine Park, Gianyar Bali. The Theatre occupies the golden Ring of Bali, only about 40 minute drive from the Ngurah Rai International Airport in Kuta and just 20 minutes from Ubud, Bali's famous cultural village. The show is presented in one hour – from 2pm to 3pm daily except Mondays. Well trained elephants open the show only a few metres from the audience seats. Other animals to follow include tigers, camels, pythons, eagles and a lot of other exotic birds on stage during the performance.

The Blanco Renaissance Museum - Ubud

Artist Don Antonio Blanco claims roots in Catalonia, Spain, but he was actually born in Manila, The Philippines in 1911 (or 1912). He lived for a while in Florida and California, and graduated from the National Academy of Art in New York. Like many artists before him, he felt the call of the tropics and traveled to Hawaii, Japan and Cambodia before eventually ending up in Bali in 1952. He married a famous Balinese dancer named Ni Rondji in 1953. The King of Ubud granted the artist two hectares of land above the river, where he built his home and museum. Blanco passed away in 1999, but his family continues to live and work in the compound. In addition to the main museum building, there are extensive gardens with a number of birds (caged and free) scattered about. The artist's studio - still used by his son Mario - as well as the public spaces of the main house is available for viewing. A small shop near the family temple carries some fantastic jewelry designed by one of Blanco's daughters. The museum is open every day from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. Admission to the grounds and museum is 50,000 Rupiah (6.00 USD).

Garuda Wisnu Kencana (GWK) Cultural Park – Ungasan

Designed and built by Nyoman Nuarta, one of Indonesia's foremost modern sculptor, the Garuda Wisnu Kencana statue or GWK and its pedestal building will be standing 150 meters tall with its wings span 64 meters across. Made from more than 4000 tons of copper and brass, the statue is picturing Lord Wisnu, as the source of wisdom, riding on the back of the mythical bird Garuda. The statue and its pedestal will be surrounded by more than 240 hectares cultural park which was once an abandoned and unproductive limestone quarry. The cultural park will provide attractions for both local and foreign visitors with supporting facilities such as Lotus Pond, Festival Park, Amphitheater, Street Theater, Exhibition Hall, as well as Jendela Bali The Panoramic Restaurant and souvenir shop. GWK Cultural Park is intended to educate, especially the young generations about the importance of preserving and cultivating Bali's cultural heritage.

Luwak Coffee & Cocoa Plantation - Ubud

Kopi (Coffee) Luwak is the most expensive and rare coffee in the world and only 500 to 700 Kg of the coffee is produced per year selling for between US$ 100 and US$ 600 per pound. Luwak is a local name of the Asian palm civet (similar to a squirrel) in Sumatra. Kopi Luwak or civet coffee, is coffee made from the beans of coffee berries which have been eaten by the Asian Palm Civet, then passed through its digestive tract. The beans are washed out and given only a medium/light roast so as not to destroy the complex flavors that develop through the process. Kopi Luwak or Civet Coffee, is very special for coffee lovers. This Coffee is very popular, even it ever been reported in Oprah Winfrey Show TV program. The beans are sold by weight mainly in Japan and the United States and served in Southeast Asian coffeehouses by the cup. Take in a tour at the Bali Agro Wisata Plantation and see how Kopi Luwak and Cocoa, Vanilla, Ginger and Tea is grown, harvested and produced. Try a sample and/or buy some packaged to take back home.

Museum Puri Lukisan - Ubud

When the high quality of Balinese art became worldly recognized, more and more Balinese artworks disappeared to other parts of Indonesia and foreign countries. Thus, the fear among the Balinese people, and also Rudolf Bonnet (a Dutch painter, 1895-1978), raised that the most precious art would be lost forever and would never come back to its origin. Another need among the artists was to improve their skills without losing their own identity as Balinese artists. In 1954 a foundation stone-laying ceremony was performed by the then Prime Minister Ali Sastroamidjyo. The name of museum would be called "Puri Lukisan" (palace of painting). The collection started with a donation of paintings from Rudolf Bonnet, eventually more followed. Museum Puri Lukisan shows with its collection of paintings and woodcarvings the important developments of Balinese arts which is unique and priceless. Nowadays within the rapid changes in the art world the museum is active in organizing exhibitions of local artists.

EXPLORE BALI'S BEACHES

Kuta Beach – Bali's World Famous Beach

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

No visit to Bali would be complete without a visit to the world famous Kuta Beach. Grab a bargain from the beach sellers or enjoy an icy cold beer from one of the many beach "bars" under the trees and enjoy the sunset that Kuta is renown.

Video: Bali's Kuta Beach

Petitenget Beach

There is a temple at this beach called 'Pura Petitenget' that's why this beach is called Petitenget. With grey sand, Petitenget Beach looks very mysterious, tourists rarely come to this beach only the local people come for swimming or playing. In the evenings you watch a spectacular beautiful sunset at Petitenget Beach.

Tuban Beach

Tuban Beach is just five minutes from the airport and from the famous Legian Street. It has white sand and surrounded by five Star hotels between Kuta and the airport. It's safe to swim here, as the hotels' lifeguards will put up flags if there are any rips. This is a good place to grab a deck chair and a good book and enjoying the beautiful sunset.

Double Six Beach

There are so many expatriates and residents coming to this beach. Normally they swim, sunbathe, play football or just relax and order some drinks at the restaurants around this white sand beach. At this area, there are some restaurants, bars and clubs, where people can dance until daybreak.

Sanur Beach – Where the ex-Pats Choose To Live

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Video: Sanur Beach

Bali's first beach resort, Sanur is a place of remarkable contrasts. Sanur is a modern and prosperous community, and host to many high class hotels and restaurants. When the Dutch invaded Bali in 1906, it was in Sanur that they landed. These days however Sanur is home to the many ex-pats that call this place of Bali their home. Sanur is famous for its beach but is getting even more famous for its lay back lifestyle and the hundreds of superb restaurants in the area.

Padang Padang Beach

Just down the road from Uluwatu is Padang-Padang, which is another enchanting beach nestled into a pocket of lava-rocks, with an entrance to the beach though a cave crevice. This small cove offers famous world-class waves that attract surfers from all over the world. The water is also safe for swimming and snorkeling. The beach is small but the setting is enchanting and memorable, and like Uluwatu has warungs for drinks and snacks.

Kedonganan Beach

It's about 3 kilometers, (around 10 minutes) from the Ngurah Rai airport. Kedonganan is a quiet fishing village, where you can visit a traditional fish market and see a 'Jukung', the traditional fishing boat hauling in their catch of fresh fish on the beach. Here, you can order the seafood grilled at a seafood restaurant along the beach while you watch the sun go down.

Impossibles Beach

Down the Peninsula from Padang-Padang, this long stretch of white-sand beach is free of warungs and people, and still maintaining its original natural make-up of flora along the towering cliffs. Unfortunately, at high tide the beach all but disappears under the waves, and for this reason Impossibles is not an ideal place for relaxing on the sand, although it is a great setting for a sea-side walk at low tide. Swimming is not advised here, and the waves are for experienced surfers only, as they break over reef.

Matahari Terbit (Sunrise) Beach

It is just 5 minutes from the beautiful Sanur Beach. It is black sandy beach with most of local people come here in the early morning to watch the sunrise and see the Mount Agung

Uluwatu – One of Bali's Best Surf Breaks

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Video: Bali's Uluwatu Beach

Uluwatu is perched above the cliffs on the island's southern peninsula. It is home to one of the oldest and most important temples in Bali. More recently Uluwatu has become famous for its challenging surf break and the spectacular views from the Warungs (restaurants) perched up on the cliff.

Padang Galak Beach

The white sandy beach, is a popular place for surfing, includes the warung and accommodations. In the morning, you can see the beauty of the sunrise, also the Mount Agung can be seen from this beach. And in the middle of the year, The Bali Kite Festival is always held at this beach.

Tulamben Beach

The lava floods and rolling of huge volcanic stones dragged the shipwreck of Liberty to the depth of 30 meters above sea level and fragmented into to parts. This shipwreck then became home to hundreds of species of coral fish and shrimp. That's why Tulamben is more quiet but more popular for diving and snorkeling.

Sindhu Beach – Sanur

Video: Sindhu Beach Sanur

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Sindhu Beach and its neighbor share a huge lagoon which is protected by a circling reef. The lagoon isn't buffeted by large waves and is therefore ideal for water sports like Kite surfing, Parasailing and Windsurfing. There is a paved walkway that stretches approx 7 klms from Mertasari Beach in Sanur's south all the way north u to the Inna Grand Bali Beach hotel and along the way there are literally hundreds of shops, warungs, bars and restaurants.

Nusa Lembongan Beach

In Balinese, Lembongan means mushroom. Nusa Lembongan is one of the most popular destinations for cruising and sailing. The pristine white sandy beaches with aquamarine bays are brimming with colorful sea life, so diving and snorkeling are also very popular sports in Nusa Lembongan. One can also enjoy the glass bottomed boat rides. With the backdrop of Mount Agung, Nusa Lembongan has spectacular scenery and offers unforgettable adventures.

Nusa Penida Beach

Nusa Penida offers fine swimming, surfing, snorkeling, scuba diving, and sunbathing, also dramatic walks, unspoilt scenery, deep caves, and delightful friendly villagers. Nusa Penida is the most gorgeous dive place in Bali with a vast spread of coral reefs and rich with color and fish. Most visitors stay in Jungut Batu on Nusa Lembongan and come over to Nusa Penida island on day trips.

Tanah Lot Beach

Located at the Tabanan, Bali 's southwestern coast, Tanah Lot is famous as the place of holiest temples on the island and the sunset above the Indian Ocean. With the black sand, Tanah Lot Beach is not recommended for swimming or surfing for the beginners but it's great for horse riding and watching the spectacular sunset above the Indian Ocean.

Echo Beach – Canggu

Video: Bali's Echo Beach

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Echo Beach isn't a swimming or relaxation beach, but has a world reputation as a great surfing beach break. The beach is rocky and the sand is black (volcanic). The surfing attracts crowds of surfers and watchers, and it is enjoyable to watch the action from the seawall while enjoying the cuisine from The Beach House Restaurant and other beachside warungs. The road to Echo beach has only recently been upgraded and resurfaced to cater for the International qu under construction there at present.

Lebih Beach

The black sand of Lebih Beach is contrasted against the blue ocean backdrop. There are various water sports or sailing on the 'Jukung' the traditional boats can be done at this beach. On the black sand, you can have picnic with your friends or family and enjoy the grilled sea food.

Geger Beach – Bali's Hidden Secret

Geger Beach is Bali's Hidden Paradise. Geger Beach is a quiet beach ideal for swimming, fishing, and sunbathing until the sun goes down.

Video: Bali's Geger Beach

Nyang Nyang Beach

Nyang Nyang Beach is known for its white sandy beach and its perfect waves for surfing. It is located at the western part of Bukit Peninsula, facing the vast Indian Ocean. This deserted surfing beach offers the complete privacy and satisfaction for visitors or surfers.

Medewi Beach

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Medewi beach is a small resort in the southeast of Jembrana. It is located midway between Gilimanuk and Denpasar, just off the main road in Airtsatang. The beach is perfect for surfing because the waves vary from 3m to 7m high. Small black stones are spread over the black sandy beach, giving a remarkable scene at sunset.

Video: Medewi Beach

Labuan Sait Beach

Labuan Sait Beach is located a few km north of Uluwatu Temple, facing the vast Indian Ocean. From the parking lot, visitors have to walk through 60m long coral reef tunnel to this beautiful beach of Labuan Sait.

Lovina Beach

Lovina Beach is located approximately 10km west of Singaraja. Its black sandy beach is beautiful at sunrise and a wonderful place for swimming. There is no surfing, but plenty of coral areas for snorkeling and diving. It is also a good place for watching dolphins offshore in early morning. This area is very tranquil with the life of the village that is peaceful.

Dreamland Beach

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

A few hundred meters up from Bingin is Dreamland, which overlooks every other Bukit beach all the way to Uluwatu. Because of its beauty, white sand and cliff outcroppings, it has become the chic beach of the day, and it is usually fairly busy with tourists, and quite a number of warungs and small bungalows have been built in the area. It is a great beach for swimming and surfing, as it offers a sand-bottom break, but often has a strong rip current.

Video: Dreamland Beach

Suluban Beach

The beach is located a few km north of Uluwatu, close to Bingin surfing beach and Labuan Sait. 'Suluban' derives from Balinese word which means 'walking or passing under something'. The beach was named Suluban, because the visitors have to pass through the coral reef cave before reaching its wide sandy beach. The sea water is crystal clear, and its large waves make it the most well-known surfing beach among the world-wide surfers.

Amed Beach – Simply Beautiful On Bali's East Coast

Amed is actually made up of a string of smaller villages located on a 10km road in the Karangasem province. It starts with the village Amed in the north followed by Congkang, Jemeluk, Bunutan, Lipah, Selang, Banyuning and Aas. Amed is a quiet fishing village with stunning ocean views and is truly a place that you must visit.

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Amed is arguably the best place to go scuba diving in Bali, and travelers come here to marvel at the diverse sea life. Besides diving and snorkeling the main activity is just relaxing far away from the tourist crowds in the south. As mentioned the Amed area offers stunning ocean vistas with headland after headland offering amazing ocean views of turquoise crystal clear water.

Video: Amed - Bali's East Coast Jewel

Pemuteran Beach

Pemuteran Beach is located in Pemuteran Village in Bali's north west. The beach has so many beautiful fishes, turtles and other marine and submarine habitats and coral reefs. There is also turtle conservation nearby. This peaceful place is ideal for natural excursion activities such as tramping at the National Park, swimming, snorkeling and diving.

Padang Bai Beach

Padang Bai, a picturesque bay surrounded by majestic cliffs and hills, is a perfect escape at the east of Bali. It is famous for its pure white sandy beach and lovely harbor scenery as a transit harbor to Nusa Penida and Lombok Island.

Candi Dasa Beach

Watch this video on
MyBali.tv
www.mybali.tv

Candi Dasa is the gateway to east Bali. The beach has been mostly washed away due to the heavy coral picking. This has now been stopped and tidal walls have been erected in an effort to restore the beach. Slowly the coral is returning, Candi Dasa now has become a popular tourist destination. Unfortunately the beach is not suitable for swimming.
