

Robert Kopf

Until his retirement about 6 years ago, Bob was for 20 years a Senior Executive at Hunter Douglas, Inc, the largest window covering company in the world. Prior to Hunter Douglas he served as a senior management executive within the carpeting industry at Burlington Industries and Allied Chemical.

Since retirement, Bob has involved himself in many charitable and non-profit organizations and activities. He is a Guardian ad Litem in Broward County, representing the best interests of abused, abandoned or neglected children in dependency court. He is Vice Chair of Voices for Children of Broward County, sits on the North Dade Board of the Greater Miami Jewish Federation, and is an avid supporter of AIPAC and Israel Bonds.

He has a BS from Fairleigh Dickinson University, two grown children, four fabulous grandchildren, and lives in Aventura with Myrna, his wife of 51 years.
