Marni Deklerk has been an elementary school teacher with the Durham District School Board for the past 16 years. She has worked with students from kindergarten to grade 8 and has her qualifications in special education. Marni studied tap, jazz and ballet at Creative Dance Workshop at the competitive level for 15 years under the direction of Miss Jan Jackson. Among her many titles and awards, Marni was a member of the tap ensemble “Clacker Tap” that won the North American Championship in Las Vegas in 1988. As the mother of a son with down syndrome, Marni is always looking for new opportunities for him and she felt that combining her 3 loves; teaching, dance, and working with people with special needs was the perfect fit.
