Chapter 65. Zoning Code – Land use Definitions and Development Standards

ARTICLE VII. 65.900. ACCESSORY USES

Sec. 65.913. Dwelling unit, accessory.

A secondary dwelling unit, subordinate to a principal one-family dwelling, within or attached to a one-family dwelling or in a detached accessory building on the same zoning lot.

Standards and conditions:

- (a) Lot location. The lot shall be located within one-half (1/2) mile of University Avenue between Emerald Street and ~~Marion Street~~ Lexington Parkway.
- (b) Minimum lot size. The lot shall be at least five thousand (5,000) square feet in area.
- (c) Number of accessory units. There shall be no more than one (1) accessory dwelling unit on a zoning lot.

(d) Compliance with other city, local, regional, state and federal regulations. Pursuant to section 60.109 of the Zoning Code, all accessory dwelling units must comply with city, local, regional, state and federal regulations.

(e) Unit occupancy.

(1) The total occupancy of the principal dwelling unit and accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed the definition of family in Section 60.207 allowed in a single housekeeping unit.

(2) The property owner of record shall occupy either the principal dwelling unit or the accessory dwelling unit as their permanent and principal residence. Using the form provided by the City, the property owner shall execute a Declaration of Land Use Restrictive Covenants and Owner's Warranties creating certain covenants running with the land for the purpose of enforcing the standards and conditions of this subsection and file the same with the County Recorder. The property owner must deliver an executed original of the Declaration, which shall display its date and document number of record, to the zoning administrator before any City building or zoning permits required for the accessory dwelling unit can be issued.

(3) The property owner shall file an annual affidavit with the zoning administrator verifying continued owner-occupancy of the property as their permanent and principal residence. A fee shall be collected in accordance with Sec. 61.302.

(4) At the request of the property owner and upon inspection finding the accessory dwelling unit has been removed, the zoning administrator shall record a release of any previously recorded covenant for that accessory dwelling unit. Any and all filing costs shall be the responsibility of the property owner.

(f) Unit size. The floor area of the accessory unit shall be a maximum of eight hundred (800) square feet. If the accessory unit is located interior to the principal structure, the principal structure shall have a minimum floor area of one thousand (1,000) square feet and the accessory unit shall not exceed one-third (1/3) of the total floor area of the structure. For multi-story principal structures built prior to the enactment of this section, the maximum floor area of an accessory dwelling unit may be equal to that of the first floor, but shall be less than or equal to fifty (50) percent of the floor area of the structure.

(g) Access and entrances.

(1) A walkway shall be provided from an abutting public street to the primary entrance of the accessory dwelling unit.

(2) Upper floor units within the principal structure shall have interior stairway access to the primary entrance of the unit. Secondary stairways required for fire safety may be located on the exterior of the side or rear of the building, but shall not be allowed on the front of the building.

(3) Exterior stairways shall be built of durable materials that match the finish of the principal structure or accessory building to which they are attached. Raw or unfinished lumber shall not be permitted.

(h) Parking. Provided that the minimum parking requirement for the principal one-family dwelling on the lot is met, no additional parking is required.

- (i) Ownership. The accessory dwelling unit shall not be sold separately from the principal dwelling unit, and may not be a separate tax parcel.
