The heart of NHTSA's and the CTST's mission is keeping families safe on America's roadways. Young drivers, ages 15-20, are especially vulnerable with traffic crashes being their leading cause of death.

NHTSA has developed a multi-tiered strategy to prevent motor vehicle-related fatalities and injury among teen drivers:

1. increasing seatbelt use
2. implementing graduated licensing
3. reducing teen's access to alcohol
4. and, parental responsibility
