

October 4, 2013

Mercer Makes: Innovation & Technology in the Capital County

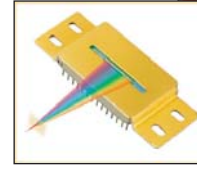

Presented by the County of Mercer

The Education Building, Room 212, The College of New Jersey, Ewing, NJ

www.Mercer175.org

images top to bottom: Schematic of Cooper & Hewitt rolled beam finisher; 1948 RCA color TV; Sensors Unlimited linear photodiode array

Agenda

- 8:30am Registration
- 9:00am Welcome, County Executive Brian M. Hughes
- 9:15 - 11:15am Morning Panel: From Iron, Clay & Electromagnets
Clifford Zink, MS, independent historian
Richard Hunter, PhD, archaeologist/president, Hunter Research, Inc.
Michael Littman, PhD, prof. of Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering, Princeton University
moderator: Emily Thompson, PhD, prof. of History, Princeton University
- 11:30am - 12:20pm TCNJ Brown Bag Session: Innovation at Sarnoff Research
Benjamin Gross, PhD, curator, TCNJ Sarnoff Collection
- 12:30 - 1:30pm Lunch
- 1:30 - 2:15pm Research & Discovery at the Institute for Advanced Study
Christine Di Bella, archivist, Institute for Advanced Study
- 2:15 - 4:30pm Afternoon Panel: Inventions, Communications & the Future
Dennis Waters, PhD, independent historian
Alexander Magoun, PhD, outreach historian, IEEE History Center
Richard C. Woodbridge, partner, Fox Rothschild, LLP
Greg Olsen, PhD, president, GHO Ventures moderator: Katherine Kish, executive director, Einstein's Alley

Reception for TCNJ's "Innovations that Changed the World" Sarnoff Exhibition to immediately follow

Proudly cosponsored by the County of Mercer, the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce, the Trenton Historical Society, and the Historical Society of Princeton. Media sponsor: Princeton Community TV. Hosted by The College of New Jersey.

To register go to:
www.Mercer175.org or call 609-989-6418
Registration fee: $20.50