

Latisha Scott – Destination Specialist

Welcome World Explorers!

My name is Latisha Scott and I am your New York travel agent!

I currently reside in two homes: Delaware and Queens, NY. I am happily married with 4 boys.

I have been with World Travel Specialists for over a year and I get a great rush of enjoyment by making travelers dreams come true!

As your travel agent, I believe it is extremely important to make sure you and your family experience the best vacation ever. In doing so, I will supply you with the best rates offered and will try to make sure every person, every age, is fulfilled with their imaginative vacation.

What better agent should you have than one who loves to travel herself. Over the past 9 years, I have traveled Carnival Cruise Lines 5 times on the Carnival Legend, Pride, Imagination, Glory, and the Freedom exploring the Southern and Eastern Caribbean islands. My next mission is to travel the Norwegian and Royal Caribbean Cruise lines.

I have also ventured land vacations, such as Disney and Epcot Center in Florida, Myrtle Beach in South Carolina, The Poconos in Pennsylvania, Ocho Rios in Jamaica, and the Grand Bahamas.

Should you choose me as your vacation planner, I will do my very best until I hear the satisfaction in your voice.
