

Why Would Someone from Jamaica Spend a January Weekend in Philadelphia?

Rabbi Dana Evan Kaplan,
author of the just-released *The New Reform
Judaism* joins us as the 33rd Annual Harry z"l & Evelyn Silver Scholar-in-Residence for the weekend of January 24-26.

Saturday evening panel discussion:

What happens when you get five Rabbis together?

Dialogue or Debate?
Conversation or Conflict?
Talk or Tension?
YOU be the judge!!

Moderated by
Old York Road Temple-Beth Am Senior Rabbi Robert Leib with panelists:
Rabbi Elliot Holin, Congregation Kol Ami
Rabbi Greg Marx, Congregation Beth Or
Senior Rabbi Lance Sussman, Reform Congregation Keneseth Israel

The public is welcome to all of the weekend's events. Please help us plan for this special weekend. Reservations required for Shabbat dinner. All other programs are free and open to the community:

Friday, January 24

Kabbalat Shabbat Service,
Molish Sanctuary, 6:00 p.m.
Catered Shabbat Dinner. Reservations
Required. Remarks by Rabbi Kaplan and Q & A, 7:00 p.m.

Saturday, January 25

Torah Study with Rabbi Kaplan,
Temple Beth Torah Chapel, 9:00 a.m.
Shabbat Service, Molish Sanctuary,
10:00 a.m.
Light Lunch, Strick Auditorium, 12:00 p.m.
"The Five Hot Button Issues Facing Reform Judaism"
Havdalah, Molish Sanctuary, 7:30 p.m.
Followed by Panel Discussion and Dessert Reception

Sunday, January 26

Breakfast in the Strick Auditorium,
served by Brotherhood and Sisterhood,
9:30-11:00 a.m. "The Rabbi and The Sharks, The Rabbi and Mandela and Stories from South Africa"

OLD YORK ROAD
TEMPLE-BETH AM

215-886-8000
www.oyrtbetham.org
971 Old York Road
Abington, PA 19001