About the State Fair of Texas Livestock Shows

The State Fair of Texas provides an annual opportunity to showcase the state's livestock industry. The hundreds of thousands of visitors who attend the show during its 24-day run include people from the nations outside the United States. Attracting approximately 3,500 4-H and FFA students from across the state of Texas will exhibit over 4,000 animals for two separate purposes: breeding and marketing.

The State Fair of Texas will host over 8,000 head of cattle, sheep, swine, goats, poultry, horses and llamas for both Youth and Pan American shows. Total prize and premium money for the 2011 Livestock Show is in excess of $1 million.

The State Fair of Texas turns 125 this year celebrating a timeless tradition. This year the fair has created many memorable items in honor of the 125th year including a pair of commemorate custom collector boots, a special edition bottle of wine, and a 1,200 pound butter sculpture depicting what the fair was like back in 1886. Learn about the timeless traditions of the agriculture industry, livestock and more while backing the brand. This year's state fair will run through Sunday, Oct. 23.
