

Rules and Regulations

1. All of the below rules will be enforced by the camp advisor.
2. All campers will remain under visible supervision of a minimum of one adult counselor at all times, unless otherwise given explicit permission by their counselor to be accompanied by another camper, in which case the buddy system is enforced.
3. All campers will attend and actively engage in camp mandated lectures, sessions, required prayers and activities unless otherwise excused.
 - a. Any excused attendance must be approved by a counselor.
4. Campers must practice proper conduct at all times, obeying all safety rules and regulations.
 - a. Camp pranks, gags, or youth initiated activities which may result in the compromised safety or health of another individual, physically, mentally, emotionally, etc., will not be tolerated.
5. Campers must be well groomed and appropriately attired for the days' activities.
 - a. If you are unsure of appropriate attire please consult a counselor/advisor and the MYNA dress code policy for assistance before or/and during camp.
6. Campers may not bring any kind of electronic device that does not add to the educational benefit of camp as deemed appropriate by the camp's administrative counselors.
 - a. An example of an appropriate device would be a recorder used to record a lecture.
 - b. Cell phones, although not necessary for camp, are permitted. Please be advised however, that cell phone usage (texting, Tweeting, Facebooking, etc.) during unauthorized times or in violating another of MYNA's policies (see rule #3 and rule # 8) will result in the immediate confiscation of that product. Exceptions exist for campers with specific permission from an adviser.
 - i. Cell phones will be collected at the beginning of camp and held with the counselor and will only be provided to the camper during designated times.
 - ii. Cell phone usage will be limited to appropriate conversations between the campers' parents/guardians and during pre-approved times only.

If you are unsure about a rule or item you would like to bring to camp please contact camp@MYNA.org for further clarification.

7. MYNA activities will be segregated by gender at all times. Non-purposeful, unsupervised, and/or excessive intermingling between genders will not be tolerated. All interaction between genders will be purposeful, public, and limited a supervised by a camp counselor.
8. No camper may possess any form of cutting instrument, illegal drugs (including legal drugs like cigarettes), flammable materials or use obscene language.
9. Vandalism, damage to camp property and the property of others is prohibited.
10. Campers are required to keep their cabin, self, and surroundings clean.
11. Campers who have vehicles on-site will not be permitted to use them during the duration of camp. Keys will be collected upon arrival.
12. Please leave valuable jewelry, or things of significant value at home, MYNA is not responsible for anything lost of that nature.
13. If a camper continues to disobey camp rules, or is found intentionally compromising the safety of another camper, the adviser will deal with the situation. Disciplinary action will be taken such as suspension of recreation time or notifying the parents of removal from camp.
14. Campers will be campers. It should be understood that MYNA serves the youth and is proud to work with such an enlightened and motivated group of individuals.
15. MYNA has a zero tolerance policy for bullying, intimidation, persecution, or deliberate meanness to others. This behavior is adversative to the theme of the camp and the overall mission of MYNA. The consequence of bullying is removal from the camp.
