

SELFIE STATION RETAIL BRANDING GUIDE

We're here to make things easy

A selfie station from Infinity Studio provides a unique way for your customers to make awesome memories with your brand, and share them with their friends, family, and other potential customers in the most powerful way: social media.

Unlike other companies, Infinity Studio offers complete frame customization with every rental. This isn't just putting your logo on the frame – it's putting your guests into the magic of your brand with professionally created art designed for sharing.

Get your in-store brand straight into their pocket

A setup in your store during special events allows guests to celebrate your brand with you. Guests are guaranteed to stop and share your photos on social media.

- Special shaped photos offer the perfect share-ability to all platforms
- Touchscreen interfaces and online galleries allow easy sharing across...

Complete services: Making it happen

Reward your customers for stopping in. Allow us to show you the excitement your guests will associate with your brand with a booth from Infinity Studio.

Next time your location is having a sale, a special event, or just want to provide great impressions to your guests, visit us online, email us, or call us to get your booth reserved. Special pricing is available for multi-event services at your venue.

Booth options range from an easy photo booth (with fun props), to a walk-by selfie station (stand-alone touchscreen) at your venue, and all include the best service and branding in the industry.
