

BEGIN THE HOLIDAY CELEBRATION WITH

Christmas on the Hill

Mark your calendar. Christmas on the Hill is set for Saturday, December 5. The day begins at 12 noon with roasted chestnuts, free salsiccia samples, and a variety of Hill merchandise from Maestro available in front of St. Ambrose at Wilson and Marconi. At the next corner, Marconi and Daggett, visit the Country Store staffed by the Sacred Heart Villa and the Neighborhood Store featuring handmade items from the sewing circle of St. Ambrose.

Joe DeGregorio will lead tours of the neighborhood starting at the Neighborhood Office at 1 p.m., 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. Beer and wine tasting will be at this location from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. See Santa there from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Stop in Gelato di Riso for storytelling by Befana at 1 p.m., 2 p.m., and 3 p.m.

Ride a horse drawn carriage from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Meet the horse in front of St. Ambrose Church.

Following 5 p.m. Mass, a tree lighting ceremony is scheduled.

The evening concludes with a concert at 7 p.m. in St. Ambrose Church, featuring Kathy Favazza, the Rosati Kain Choir, and the Clarion Brass.

At press time for this issue of the newsletter, the above is the tentative schedule. Check the Hill 2000 website for updates.
