

2015/16 Academic Year- Clubs Contact Sheet

Club	Club Mandate:	Contact	Email
1. Rugby Club	Purpose: to compete with various teams throughout the year.	Mike Soley	Michael.Soley@live.ca
2. Billiards Club	The fundamental purpose of the club is to enjoy each other's company off-campus of course, and to create connections and friendships across disciplines and age groups (particularly mature students). However, it is also to display a fun activity in a pub that does not require drinking. Billiards Club members promote moderation in drinking, and also alcohol-less alternatives for Friday night social settings outside the home and off-campus.	Marnus Grobbelaar	hjjgrobbelaar@telus.net
3. Kings Keepers	The mission of King's Keepers is to foster a community at King's that works to further environmental stewardship and creation care on and around the King's campus. This requires raising awareness of environmental issues, reconnecting the community with creation, and encouraging action that contributes to sustainability.	Waurner Adema	wauradema@yahoo.com
4. Swingin' 360 Club	We seek to be a safe place where people can develop a passion for dancing at affordable rates, and make friends within the King's community.	Josina Leder	jmarieleder@gmail.com
5. Outdoors Club	Our purpose is to provide a holistic outdoor recreation opportunity to the students of King's. We intend to make outdoor activities in creation	Tyler Struyk	runtheracets@hotmail.ca

	accessible to students by making these activities affordable and available for those who would otherwise find it difficult to get out of the city and explore. We plan to make this club as inclusive as possible for people who do not come from an outdoors-oriented background.
6. Zumba Club	The Zumba Club will give students a chance to get physical and let off some steam, or stress from the week. It is also a chance to find a new passion/hobby. It is a fun way to get physical activity.	Emily Hughes	emily.hughes747@gmail.com
7. Prison Ministry Club	Our hope as a team is that we show respect, Christ-like love and care for the boys in EYOC by being positive role models. This is done through our interactions with each other, the staff, and the boys. We introduce and expose them to Biblical themes that have impacted our lives; and we are confident that the Holy Spirit is leading us to break the monotony of their lives. “But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” –Romans 5:8	Andrew Fox	andrewfox37@gmail.com
8. Animation Club	Animation club gathers animation fans together to watch and enjoy a selected group of animated programming. It will introduce members to new content they never would have imagined was possible. We will meet and watch shows ranging from eastern anime to western cartoons, comedy, action, romance: we watch it all.	Zachary Dechant	zachary.dechant@lab.kingsu.ca katelynn-marshall@hotmail.com

9. Photography Club	Photographs are used by everyone, everywhere to capture memories and moments in life. The main purpose of this club is to teach members techniques and skills that will enhance their abilities to take photos. In addition to this, we hope to form relationships and grow with one another in our art skills and our lives in general.	Fiona Meagher	fionameagher@hotmail.com
10. Psychology Club	Purpose: to bring students with an interest in psychology together to learn about career, volunteer, and other opportunities related to the field.	Janelle Knoop/Ashley Fischer	janelle.knoop@lab.kingsu.ca ashley.fischer@lab.kingsu.ca
11. Magic The Gathering Club	The idea of MTG Sunday is to promote a community of "Magic" players within King's. One thing many university students lose during their time at school, especially in residence, is their hobbies. We would like to foster a community of "Magic" players, as there is expressed interest in learning the game. We meet every Sunday for casual play and distressing. There will also be a draft tournament. Our hope is to create a pastime for people to enjoy at the end of the weekday once all their work is done, as well as expand the community as we teach new people to play.	Daniel Krol	d.krol13@hotmail.ca
12. King's Eagles Hockey Club	Purpose: to offer a fun, competitive hockey environment to students of all skill levels, allowing to grow in skill level. The King's Eagles offers a Christian atmosphere that connects students no matter their year of study, in a safe, non-contact hockey league with alumni, student teams,	Eric Groot	TheEricGroot@gmail.com and church hockey teams in Edmonton.

13. Painting Club	Purpose: Build community and take part in meaningful discussion while learning painting skills from Tim. Also and snacks and drink tea!	Nicole Gingrich	nicole.gingrich@hotmail.com
14. Fresh Pot Fellowship	Purpose: bring people together over a fresh brew. This is a club that supports each member in discussions and friendly chatter. We encourage walk-ins/drop-ins for a quick cup along with planned events to connect with each other. With FPF (Fresh Pot Fellowship), we love meeting with people we may not talk to otherwise, along with building an online discussion around coffee through twitter.	Cameron Gelderman/ Eric Bomhof	cameron.gelderman@lab.kingsu.ca ericbomhof@hotmail.com
15. Micah Action & Awareness Students Society (MASS)	Our purpose is to spread awareness of social justice issues around the Edmonton community and globally. We encourage students to get involved and care for the community, and to fulfill God's calling in Micah 6:8 in partnership with the Micah Centre.	Abbi Hofstede	abbigail.hofstede@gmail.com
16. Old Timers Club	A gathering time for mature students to meet and discuss life, school, and politics. This is meant to be an inviting opportunity for students who might feel they are left on the fringe of the King's Community. If you use the phrase "back in my day..." or "Get off my lawn!" at least twice a day, this group is for you.	Jodi Learn/Keith Feldbusch	jodi.learn@lab.kingsu.ca keith.feldbusch@lab.kingsu.ca
17. Diverse Cultural Association	DCA is a multicultural club that showcases our diversity and individuality and still appreciates our	Amanda Nsofor	diverseculturalassociation@yahoo.com
