We are pleased to welcome Sedhom & Mayhew, PLLC, a Bespoke Law Firm™ as a new member of The Luxury Marketing Council.

After more than 16 years of practicing law and gaining a deep understanding of client frustrations and concerns, Sedhom & Mayhew discovered a true void in the marketplace, the need for a world where the most discerning clientele can gain legal insight and guidance tailored to their custom needs.

Regardless of company size or complexity of required work, corporate decision-makers have expressed these three main concerns:

- 1- Legal fees are wasted. If a deal does not close, often the client is left with an outstanding invoice for legal services without the desired results.
- 2- High legal fees likely resulting from having too many attorneys on one transaction or using junior attorneys to tackle complex issues.
- 3- Most law firms are inefficient, making it increasingly difficult to balance profit with expedience.

Sedhom & Mayhew provides their clients an unparalleled level of service and tackles the above issues through their Unique Serving System™. This unique approach has distinguished them from other firms and offers their clients access to guidance and advisory services without barriers.

All of the Sedhom & Mayhew attorneys have business backgrounds, allowing them to extend preeminent services coupled with practical legal and business advice and assist their clients in monetizing their businesses.

Sedhom & Mayhew serves luxury businesses in:

- Luxury Goods & Jewelry
